Luke 16:1–13 | “The Dishonest Manager”

1. How does the parable of the dishonest manager teach disciples of Jesus how they are to live in this world?

2. When Jesus says to “make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth” (verse 9), what does he mean by that?

3. When it comes to using our earthly wealth for the sake of Christ’s kingdom, why is it no excuse to say that you don’t have a lot of money or possessions?

4. How does Jesus (and Joshua) make it clear that our allegiance to God must be total?
