

Small Group Questions: Luke 2:1–20

December 7, 2025

1. In what ways does this text contrast power and weakness? How is God visible in both power and weakness in this story?

2. Why is it important for Jesus to be born in Bethlehem?

3. Who is Caesar Augustus, and what can we learn by viewing him as a pawn in this story?

4. Why does God choose to reveal the good news to shepherds?

5. What is the good news that brings great joy?

6. What are the four responses to the good news we see in this passage? Which of these responses do you find most exciting or most challenging?

GFC App
Google

Apple

