

1. How did Hannah's childlessness affect her? Was her response godly or not?
2. The severe trial of Hannah proved to be the salvation of a whole people. Do we owe it all to Penninah?
3. What lessons about prayer do you learn from Hannah's example?
4. Practically speaking, what should it look like for Christians to dedicate, or "lend," their children to God in our century and culture?
5. How does the generosity of God influence our own generosity?