

1. Was it wrong for Samuel to be grieve over Saul?
2. What is the difference between how man sees and how God sees?
3. Is it possible for the Spirit of the Lord to depart from Christians today?
4. How is the providence of God on display in this story?
5. How does David's story help us understand what it means to call Jesus "the man of God's own choosing?"