Luke 11:14–26 | “The Kingdom Has Come Upon You”

1. What do we learn about Christ from the fact that he “knew their thoughts”?
2. When Jesus was accused of working miracles through Beelzebul (Satan), what were his responses?
3. In what ways does this passage demonstrate that there is no neutrality (no “middle ground”) when it comes to a person’s relationship with Christ?
4. How do verses 24-26 teach us about the insufficiency of removing evil spiritual influences unless we are also filled with the Spirit of God?
