1 Samuel 24 | David Spares His Enemy

1. How do David's men try to determine God's will based on their circumstances? Why is this a bad idea? Are we sometimes guilty of the same thing?
2. What does this passage teach us about listening to the words of other people? (Bonus: How does it fit together with the places in Scripture that encourage listening to other people? Proverbs 11:14)
3. In what ways does David show humility in this passage? Why is humility difficult to have in the middle of conflict?
4. What does David say about God being a judge? How does this help David show humility?
5. How does David point us to Jesus in this passage?
