

1. How does the subtlety of Satan affect our strategies for defending against his attacks?
2. What are the three curses directed toward the serpent, and how do they affect human beings on this earth?
3. What are the consequences of sin directed specifically toward Adam and Eve, and why do they receive those particular consequences?
4. How does Genesis 3:15 offer hope in the face of these curses? Are there any other ideas in Genesis 3 that offer us hope in the face of the devastating effects of sin in this world?
