

Small Group Questions: Luke 10:17–24

September 14, 2025

1. What is joy? If Christians are supposed to “rejoice always,” does that mean we feel joy constantly?

2. In what way are Christians able to tread on serpents? How is this different than snake-handling?

3. Does Jesus’ response in verse 20 suggest that Christians shouldn’t feel joy over spiritual victories in this life?

4. What is the relationship between prayer and rejoicing?

5. Why would Jesus consider it a source of joy for us to know that we were chosen by him?

GFC App
Google

Apple

