

1. Why does Paul say that his coming to them was not in vain?
2. What would make someone stand out in your mind as being bold in our God?
3. If we don't seek to please men, but to please God, does that suggest we don't care if we offend people?
4. What does it mean for us to receive the Word of God?
5. What kinds of things, either in our lives or in the culture around us, hinder us and others from receiving the Word?
