

1. "O Lord, Our Lord" (Oh Yahweh, Our Adonai), declares that God is our Lord. Is it possible to believe in a God who is not Lord?
2. How does God's use of babies and infants to defeat his enemies display the majesty of God?
3. How does Psalm 8 teach us to confess our "worth and our unworthiness," and why are these two confessions important for the Christian life?
4. How does Jesus fulfill the spirit of Psalm 8 so that his name is majestic in all the earth?
