

1. Why does the Bible include shameful stories like this?
2. How does Amnon's story in this chapter resemble the picture of all sinners before salvation described in Titus 3:3?
3. How does Amnon's sin affect him, Tamar, and others?
4. What is David's responsibility/culpability in the sin committed by his son and against his daughter?