Luke 20:19–26 | “Render To God”

1. In what ways does this passage provide a window into the hearts of the religious leaders/spies?
2. What can we learn from the fact that the spies were a mixed group of Pharisees and Herodians (as Matthew and Mark tell us)?
3. Why did the spies want a simple yes-or-no answer to their question about paying taxes, and how does Jesus avoid the trap?
4. How does Jesus answer the question in a way that emphasizes both honoring the government and honoring God? How do these two responsibilities relate to one another?
