

1. What would earn us the biblical insult of being called a worthless man? How can we avoid being “worthless” Christians?
2. “Could it be that 2 Samuel 20 depicts a double rebellion?” (quoted from Dale Ralph Davis) How does Joab’s murder of Amasa demonstrate an insufficient kind of loyalty to the king?
3. What is wrong with the way Joab handled the situation with Sheba?
4. Why do you think the author ends the story of David on a discouraging note? How can we find encouragement in the midst of discouraging circumstances?
