

Small Group Questions — Psalm 6

11/13/2022

1. Do you think David's description of his pain and struggle paint a universal picture that everyone can relate to?
2. Why is God a source of struggle rather than a source of hope in the beginning of the Psalm?
3. Is David trying to convince God to show mercy? Should we make arguments to God in our prayers?
4. David's perspective seems to change by the end of the Psalm. What do you think causes David's outlook to change?

Extra Credit: In your times of struggle with pain and suffering, have there been arguments or tools that you have turned to in order strengthen your hope?
