

1. Can you pray without using words?
2. Is it possible to pray without ceasing?
3. Can anyone pray? Are there any prerequisites to prayer?
4. Does the holiness of God affect the things we pray for?
5. How can we believe both Psalm 5:5 (that God hates evildoers) and John 3:16 (that God so loved the world) at the same time? Are these ideas contradictory?

Extra Credit: David asks God for help recognizing enemies who flatter with their tongues, but there is no truth in their mouth. What things do you look for to help you determine if a public figure or preacher is actually trustworthy verses just fun to listen to?