

On this fifth day of Advent.

What we do now prepares us for the future. And our reflections on the past remind us that there is a future.

Prayer: Lord, long ago...they waited. They waited and prepared. And He came. In your perfect timing, He came into this world. Help me to do now that which prepares my heart for what is next.
Amen.