Jesus: Invitation or Proclamation?

Ephesians 1:3-10

1. The Sovereignty of the King

Psalm 24:1 "The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein."

God's sovereignty does not depend upon man's acknowledgment. As Creator, He possesses absolute authority over everything He has made. Our rejection of that authority does not diminish His kingship.

Other Scriptures:

- Genesis 1:1
- Psalm 139:13
- Romans 9:20–21

2. The Purpose of the Plan

Ephesians 1:4–5 "Even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world ... he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will."

Christ's coming was not God's response to an unexpected rebellion. Before creation, God had established His purpose of redemption through His Son.

Other Scriptures:

- John 6:37–40
- John 1:12–13
- 2 Timothy 1:9

Jesus: Invitation or Proclamation? (cont.)

Ephesians 1:3-10

3. The Necessity of the Call

John 6:44 "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him."

The command to repent does not establish man's ability to do so apart from God's grace. The Holy Spirit must transform the heart, enabling the sinner to recognize Christ and willingly submit to Him.

Other Scriptures:

- John 6:65
- Ezekiel 36:25–27
- Romans 8:7–8

4. The Proclamation of Christ

Acts 17:30 "The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent."

The gospel is not merely an invitation to consider whether we want Christ as King. It is the proclamation that Jesus Christ is King, and all people are commanded to repent and believe.

Other Scriptures:

- Romans 10:14–17
- Philippians 2:9–11
- Acts 18:9–10
