Genesis 1

Jesus Christ - Jesus means Savior. Christ is the anointed. Jesus Christ - anointed to save. Christ has to do with the residency of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has taken up residency. Jesus Luke 4:

16 When he came to the village of Nazareth, his boyhood home, he went as usual to the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read the Scriptures. 17 The scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where this was written: 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free, 19 and that the time of the Lord's favor has come." (NLT)

Jesus the man came, died rose again and went back and sits at the right hand of the Father. but Christ never left the earth. He is still in the earth, but he's the only one of the Godhead we never sing about. We don't sing to the Holy Spirit. We sing about Jesus and the Father. So the only one of the Godhead who is still in the earth, we don't write about, sing about, or preach about. We don't let folk come to the altar and get a hold of Him, yet Christ never left the earth.

Throughout the book of Ephesians - you have what you have in Christ, not in Jesus. You have it in the anointed.

But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. 1John 2:20

You have an anointing and you know all things, Your past, your present and your future are already in your anointing. It's not going to be external, it will be getting whats already in there and fishing it out. You have an anointing and you know all things. The Spirit of God who takes residence in you knows all things. How can there be a guide that knows all things. The Holy Spirit has toured everything that has to do with your life! 1 Corinthians 2:

"No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him." 10 But it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets. 11 No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. 12 And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us. 13 When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths. 14 But people who aren't spiritual can't receive these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them and they can't understand it, for only those who are spiritual can understand what the Spirit means. 15 Those who are spiritual can evaluate all things, but they themselves cannot be evaluated by others. 16 For, "Who can know the Lord's thoughts? Who knows enough to teach him?" But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

Habitation Conference 2018

The Holy Spirit has already gone from Heaven into time and comes to us and says, "Now let's go on this adventure together." I have to learn to be led by the Spirit of God. That's especially pertinent for worship leaders.

There is no church culture in the silicon valley where I am now. Sunday is no different than Tuesday. It's no different than any other time. Church is nowhere on their mind. I'm trying to create a culture. I've got a new young stage. I hired my whole stage off of youtube. On Wednesdays I'm trying to train them myself. I can hear the sound they're supposed to be making, but I can't sing it. I know everything that's supposed to happen, every note. I know when we've missed the moment, and when we've hit it. I know everything but I can't do it. I'm trying to train people something that my skillset does not allow.

My stage is all Millennials. I told them, "You have the sound of the age, but while you have the sound of the age, you miss a million moments." Do you know the sound of the moment? Do you know the sound that God needs to come on the back of the sound in that moment. IDK if you can train that. When I need to stop right here... and my song set means nothing. When I need to get out of the way and let God and the people kiss. It's not the time to show off your skills, it's time to remove yourself because God is in the place and the people should get to experience what you've already experienced before you even got in the building.

If you can't preach in this atmosphere tonight, you're not called.

Turn to Genesis 1. God gave me this revelation 15 years ago, but I never used it for worship leaders, just for the church. When Tasha asked me to her Conference, I spoke it. May God increase upon it tonight.

Genesis 1 History of Creation:

1-2 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. 2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

4 God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

10 God called the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters he called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

12 The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the vault of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark sacred times, and days and years,

17-18 God set them in the vault of the sky to give light on the earth, 18 to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good. 21 So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living thing with which the water teems and that moves about in it, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Habitation Conference 2018

25 God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

*6 - 7 6And God said, "Let there be a vault between the waters to separate water from water." 7So God made the vault and separated the water under the vault from the water above it. And it was so.

God's creating an expanse, waters and waters and something in the middle. Why did everything else get an it was good and this got "and it was so?" God was creating and because there was no one there to praise him, He blessed himself. God went through all creation then He blessed the thing that He created. He created the firmament and never gave it His blessing, everything else got His blessing. He said it is so, I've done it, and it was so.

I'm a teacher preacher, when I teach I usually open about 4-5 cans of worms. Then in the second half I tie them together.

Whenever God wants something, God doesn't speak to the thing He wants but He speaks to what holds it and commands what holds it to turn it loose. In creation God said "Let" Who is He talking to? as if something is almost restraining creation. Let it go! Turn it loose. He never said let there be grass, tomatoes, etc. He said, let the earth bring forth. He spoke to the earth and the earth gave up what was already in it. He spoke to the dirt and the dirt gave up its potential. He didn't say let there be Pluto, Mars, Uranus, etc He said, let the heavens bring forth - let go of what I already put in you. He didn't say let there be tuna and mackerel, He said, let the waters bring forth. He had already put the potential for life in the water and it turned life.

When God created man - He spoke to Himself. "Let us make man in our image." He brought us forth from Himself! You didn't come out of your mama and daddy. There is a difference between when you were created and when you're made! Your mama and daddy made the creation a house - that's where I live in while I'm here. You were created in Christ long before mom and dad ever shared two straws and a milkshake. Who we really are is the spirit-man inside of us. This flesh is just a house.

What God created is existing in a temporary house. You always know where something comes from because when it dies it goes back to it. Adam's name means mud man - from dirt he came, and from dirt he returns. To be absent from the Body is to be present with the Lord. The real me is going where it came from.

We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. 2 Cor. 5:8

Every significant powering the earth is accompanied by a significant sound. There is no great power that does not also make a great sound. I'm still amazed that a 747, something that weighs 600k tons, has engines that can move it 50k feet in the air at 500 mph. Anything that has great power has great sound. There is a difference in the sound between a Prius and Camaro. If there is no sound, there is no power. A big block Chevy has a 500 horsepower sound which is accompanied by a great power. When I was growing up I used a chainsaw.

Habitation Conference 2018

With it, I could take down a might oak tree, but I had to wear earplugs. Everything that has great power has great sound. I could hear the engine of train near my house from a mile away.

I'm so concerned that our churches are getting too quiet. What ever has great power also makes a great sound. When the sound leaks out the power leaks out. Great sound great power! He inhabits the praises of His people. Say, I'm loud and I'm powerful! I'm old school, I still run laps, I still jump up and down, I still dance before the Lord, I still make a fool of myself. But wherever I go, I'm gonna make a sound!

You are in charge of how big God is. If God inhabits praise, then he takes on the dimension of the praise in this house (our bodies/His temple). If you want a little God, give Him that little gulf coast clap, nice person praise. Sometimes you get to where you don't need a little God. Sometimes you fly from France with stage 4 cancer, and you don't need a little God you need a Great Big God so you release a great big place. Paul and Silas praise was because the jail had to break to accommodate God!

Sound precedes manifestation. We want for God to move, then we'll make a sound. I hear this a lot - "Praise Him for what He's done." Sound does not follow manifestation. Sound creates the manifestation. I don't thank God after I get the job, I give Him praise that creates favor when I walk in the door. I don't praise him after the healing, it's my sound that creates the healing. You need to shout on this side of it. You make a sound then God moves on your sound and creates the thing that you need Him to make.

Sound precedes manifestation:

- Elijah's servant said, "I see a cloud the size of a man's hand." But before that Elijah said, "I hear the sound of an abundance of rain." (1 Kings 18:41-44) I don't see nothing, but I hear something.
- Jehoshaphat (2 Chron 20) threw down his weapons and began to praise and the LORD set ambushes against their enemies and their enemies defeated each other
- Joshua and his men shouted the the walls of Jericho down (Joshua 6)
- On the Day of Pentecost there came a Sound like as a mighty rushing wind (Acts 2)

Make the sound and God will create the miracle that you're looking for, because Sound moves first.

Sound seals destiny. The Church is supposed to be prophetic. Say you turned your volume off on your television and you see a picture of a woman walking down the sidewalk in a blue dress. You know nothing about her future based on what you see. (Pastor Carpenter directs the musician to play something). By what he's playing you know she's going to a happy place, to hang out with friends or something. Here's the same woman, on the same sidewalk, with the same blue dress. (Plays something scary) You're already afraid because it sound like Jason Voorhees (from Friday the 13th) is about to come out. You knew nothing about the woman... you just heard the sound and you know what was coming!

The just don't live by sight, they live by faith (2 For 5:7), and faith comes by hearing! (Rom. 10:17) I see my future by what I hear. Don't look at me and judge me, because you don't know the sound I've been making. I'm headed toward my sound. Everything in life follows the sound it makes. My marriage is terrible? Change the sound. I am broke? Change the sound. I am depressed? Change the sound. What sound are you making about your circumstance?

Apostle Carpenter asks the drummer to play something 'tribal'. Begins making declarations and storming through the enemy's camp. I'm looking through all the dry bones, getting all the promises of my children. Then he asks the keyboardist to play 'still waters' and begins to speak the Lord is my shepherd Psalm 23. We went from tribal to still waters just by a sound. Not because I preached you there, but because there was a sound. That's why David said, "Give me skilled musicians" not someone who just took lessons for two weeks. (1 Chron 15)

Apostle Carpenter...you haven't said anything about Genesis.

God created the firmament and divided the waters beneath from the waters above, and it was so. He refused to bless it. The word firmament in Hebrew is a parallel word to one that means 'air' - the 2nd Heaven. 12 inches above your head is an atmosphere in the invisible realm. Your eye does not have the ability to pick up the image. If your eyes could see the conflict going on between angels you would shock and feel like dead men, which is usually the response when you see .

3rd Heaven is where John was given the revelation. Revelation is not a book, it's a vision we have the book because he wrote the vision down. The 3rd Heaven is the abode of God. God right out of the gate he made the firmament and refused to bless it. Satan is not in Hell. It preaches good, but it's theologically awful. The demons aren't in Hell.

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. (Ephesians 6:12)

Hell is reserved for Satan but he's not in hell. God knew that there would be a rebellion in Heaven. Satan and a 3rd of his cohorts would rebel, so God created a place where evil would reside called the firmament. Because Satan would be there and God refused to bless it because there would be wickedness.

Now our dilemma is... How should we play pray Thy Kingdom come and Thy will done on earth as it is in heaven? We Pray that #3 would come on #1 - but #2 is an obstacle.

According to the Word of God, you have no needs. He has blessed you with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places.

*Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. Ephesians 1:3

It's not that faith creates things that do not exist. Faith is meant to help you move things from one dimension to another dimension. I need to move things from heavenly places into the earth realm where they can actually help me. He has supplied all of your needs according to His riches in Glory by Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:19) What I need is not in a dimension where I can use it. Now my goal is I've got a get what's in #3 to #1.

Everything God's gonna do He's already done. That's why He said, "It is finished." (Hebrews 4:3) The word of God is trying to help you become who you already are, and your mind hasn't caught up yet. We are transformed by the renewing of our minds. (Romans 12:2) In church we are there to learn who we really are.

Habitation Conference 2018

I'm the king of the 1 time gig, because after I preach people don't invite me back. The prophetic is not my lead gift, though my preaching is prophetic. I went to this conference and they kept saying, "God is about to do this or that." I got up and said, "God ain't about to do nothing! It is finished, everything he's gonna do, is already done." He brings you into the things that he's already prepared for you.

Daniel prays read the story carefully and God released Gabriel the meant he prayed. Mark 11 - believe you receive when you pray - don't believe you receive when you receive but where you pray - when you come to God with his own word He will not let it return void.

In Daniel 10, Daniel prayed and God releases the message with the musical angel.

Gabriel's not a fighter. Finally after 21 days, Gabriel shows up with the answer to Daniel's prayer. He said I got detained when God sent me with message of #3 headed to #1, I ran into conflict in #2. Gabriel is a musical angel. Michael, the warring angel came to fight. Gabriel can't fight, but he can make a sound. Gabriel makes a sound the Lord comes from Heaven! Oh, if you could just learn to open your mouth and make a sound!!

David said to the Philistine (Goliath), "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. (1 Sam 17:45) Don't ever run towards your giant with your mouth shut - open your mouth!!

For 15 years, since God started showing me this, I've never been able to preach it at a worship conference until this year. I noticed in the bible. Up till now I know of 3 dimensions of the Heavenly realms. Gabriel the musical angel got detained until a warring angel showed up. 3 heavens, 3 dimensions of praise. IdK if there are more expressions or intensities of praise, maybe someone will come up with more, but I know of 3.

There's a first level of praise that the bible says silences the enemy. The enemy is a liar, he wants you to agree with him. There is power in agreement, but we are to cast down every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God and bring into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. (2 For 10:5) So when Satan tells you something, who are you gonna agree with? Him or God? Because any two of you agree as touching any thing it will be done. (Matt. 18:19)

There is a praise that shuts him up. There is a praise that stills the avenger - the enemy. I personally think it's a next level passion. I'm from the camp where it DOES take all that! David danced before the LORD with all his might. (2 Sam. 6) Can you imagine how ugly it was? It wasn't like the movie Hitch, where he's a white guy dancing and he's told 'stay right here.' (contained to a small dancing space) David's arms and legs were going everywhere I bet that was an ugly praise. It stills the enemy, it renders him inactive. It stills his activity in your life.

Then there's a 3rd dimension of praise. Then there's a 3rd level it takes the most passion, energy and breath which came from God. It takes you giving God back what he gave you. The Bible says the shout - that it's associated with TRIUMPH - not battle. Shout unto God with the voice of triumph. (Psalm 47:1) You don't shout unless it's a win. It's a shout. It's not a moan or a pain. This is a VICTORY. The word shout means to mar and tear apart, piece by piece by piece. When you dig deep and exert the greatest energy you have back to God. Its that point you haven't told your enemy to shut up or even render him inactive; you have begun to dismantle an evil kingdom that has set itself against your family, your money, your ministry... You begin to dismantle it piece by piece by piece by piece.

How many have been praying for a very long time that you have yet to see manifested?

And you still have not seen it. There's a problem, because believe you receive when you pray, and you've been waiting on it 5 years. This is what I believe is happening to the prayers of the saints which gives another dimension of importance to what you do.

We enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise (Psalm 100:4)... and then we quit. But you've got to exit the same door you came in. What you've just asked for you've got to push it back through that entryway. So you exit with praise and thanksgiving. What I believe has been happening, most of it has to do with preachers. Preachers are move of God killers. Worshippers set an atmosphere and preachers can kill it in 11 seconds.

Our churches are more produced. I believe in production. We did a 3.4 million dollar upgrade. I believe in production, but I don't lean on it. A while back, we had our power go out and I remembered something on the fly. I looked at the guy behind me serves on the stage team. Go down and get that bull horn. No organ, no microphone, no drums, just a bull horn. The altars flooded and lined up down the aisle down the door with people wanting to have depression broken off in their life. I preached it with no power and a bull horn.

I have a secret friend and I asked him awhile back and his church is extremely produced.

Everybody needs someone in their life who's not impressed with them. I said, "I've got a question for you. If every bit of this went out, could you still have church?" Crickets - the answer was no, because that's what he leans on to do what God is no longer doing. Now we're clouds with no water and we have a form of Godliness with no power. (2 Tim 3:5) It looks like church and acts like church, but there's no power. People coming who don't know the difference because that is the height of their experience. We've removed the shout, we've gotten nice. nobody sweats and stinks anymore. It's pretty, and it's innovative - and we like to get up and all about how great leaders we are. But the Lord said not by might, nor by power but by My Spirit. (Zech 4:6)

What if a year, or 5 years, or 10 years of unanswered prayers were in the 2nd heavens and all it would take is to dismantle the wickedness that was in your purpose? What if it was released before this weekend was over with? I preached for one hour to get you to this point right here. I believe where the shout left, the power left. I believe God has answered every single prayer that you've prayed but it's gonna take something to loosen it and release it. It was never meant to be the enemy's, it was meant to be yours.

I see the next few minutes getting really really ugly. I see people getting out in the aisles. Circling around the front People with hands raised, security getting nervous. This is not a sit pretty in your seat and give God a second holler. I'm talking to the people you've been listening to me and you've got good and irritated about what you've heard. I'm trying to stir you up and get you mad. I'm trying to help you to understand your healing, your husband getting saved, your kid coming off drugs. God can give you a better job with less hours and more money, and nobody can shake lose what's yours but you because your stuff only hears your voice !!
