Digging Deeper Study Guide
2 Kings 15-16, Isaiah 1-8

Brief Summary:

In this week's episode, Mickey takes us through 2 Kings 15–16 and Isaiah 1–8. We see God calling His people to genuine repentance, particularly in how they treat the poor, and Isaiah's vision of God's holiness and his response to encountering Him.

Mickey then reminds us that God initiates, and we are called to respond. Because we cannot separate God from His character, what matters to Him should matter to us. Our worship should lead to obedience, shaping how we live and care for those in need.

Mickey closes out this episode by challenging us to consider how we respond to God in light of the great mercy and grace He has poured out on us.

Study Questions:

1. Are there areas of your life where you need to repent, whether in your thoughts, attitudes, or actions toward the poor and those in need?

2. What helps you gain a clearer view of God's holiness and a deeper understanding of His mercy and grace in your life?

3. As God initiates and invites you to respond to Him today, how will you answer? Are you willing to say, "Here am I. Send me" (Isaiah 6:8)?

Prayer:

End your time in prayer to God our Father, to the Holy Spirit, and to our Lord, Jesus Christ.
