

Digging Deeper Study Guide

Numbers 31-36, Deuteronomy 1-4

Brief Summary:

In this week's episode, Brian closes out our time in the book of Numbers and begins the book of Deuteronomy by reminding us that the Kingdom of Heaven was never meant to remain stationary.

Brian explores our tendency to crave comfort and predictability, while showing how a life of faith requires trust, movement, and dependence on God. He contrasts the many "gods" in the land with the one true God — the God who went to incredible lengths to make Himself known to His people.

Through it all, Brian challenges us to go where God leads, even in fear and uncertainty, remembering that just as God was with Israel, Jesus is with us always.

Study Questions:

1. Are you more focused on building a safe place for yourself than taking the Kingdom of Heaven into the darkness?
2. What idols are you wrestling with this week?
3. Can you remember a few specific moments this week where Jesus did something beautiful for you and your soul?

Prayer:

End your time in prayer to God our Father, to the Holy Spirit, and to our Lord, Jesus Christ.
