“Honor And Obedience”

“I Will Honor And Obey. I Will Do What My Parents Say!”

“Children, always obey your parents, for this pleases the Lord.”

- Colossians 3:20

READ:

Genesis 22

DISCUSS:

- What was the name of the father we learned about in today's Bible Story?
- What did God ask him to do to his son?
- Did Isaac obey his father and allow him to sacrifice him?
- What did God provide for the sacrifice since Abraham obeyed?
- Is obeying our parents always easy to do?

SAY:

Planting the right kind of seeds in your family is very important. Let's talk about two very important seeds that all healthy families must plant.

The first seed is HONOR. Children must show honor to their parents in the way they speak and respond to their parents.

The second seed is OBEDIENCE. Children must practice instant obedience with their parents. Obeying is never easy, but it is always the right thing to do.

Through the story of Abraham and his son, Isaac, we learn that planting honor and obedience will help our family grow to be healthier.

PRAY:

Pray with your children that God would help them obey and honor their parents. Remind them that although it is not always easy, God will bless them if they honor and obey their parents.
