

THE RELATIONSHIP

Psalm 81:1-10

Rejoice in your worship. (1-5a)

Worship is imperative.

You'll praise God more when you recognize your reasons to praise.

Remember God your Redeemer. (5b-7)

Because of the covenant:

He is YOUR God, and you are HIS child.

Whatever happens to you is as if it is happening to God. He knows. He cares.

Respond with a big mouth. (8-10)

"Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it."

Like a baby bird, we look to God with dependent expectation.

The only thing restricting the amount of God's goodness and provision I receive is the size of my mouth.

GROUP / FAMILY DISCUSSION

- Have you ever seen a baby bird being fed? What part does it play in the process?
- Have you ever been desperate for God to provide? Please share.
- How does knowing that you are God's and He is yours change your outlook on your needs?
- Read Matt 6:25-34 and Phil 4:19. What do these passages say about God's provision for us? How can we have more confidence in these verses in light of our understanding of the covenant?
- In what ways have you viewed God's provision in your life more like Uber Eats than a baby bird?
- What are some things that you need to open your mouth for this week?
- What will you practically do this week to "open wide(r) your mouth?"
- How can we pray for you?
- Pray together.

THE RELATIONSHIP

Psalm 81:1-10

Rejoice in your worship. (1-5a)

Worship is imperative.

You'll praise God more when you recognize your reasons to praise.

Remember God your Redeemer. (5b-7)

Because of the covenant:

He is YOUR God, and you are HIS child.

Whatever happens to you is as if it is happening to God. He knows. He cares.

Respond with a big mouth. (8-10)

"Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it."

Like a baby bird, we look to God with dependent expectation.

The only thing restricting the amount of God's goodness and provision I receive is the size of my mouth.

GROUP / FAMILY DISCUSSION

- Have you ever seen a baby bird being fed? What part does it play in the process?
- Have you ever been desperate for God to provide? Please share.
- How does knowing that you are God's and He is yours change your outlook on your needs?
- Read Matt 6:25-34 and Phil 4:19. What do these passages say about God's provision for us? How can we have more confidence in these verses in light of our understanding of the covenant?
- In what ways have you viewed God's provision in your life more like Uber Eats than a baby bird?
- What are some things that you need to open your mouth for this week?
- What will you practically do this week to "open wide(r) your mouth?"
- How can we pray for you?
- Pray together.