

LIVING FOR THE WILL OF GOD

1 Peter 4:1-11

Time is short. Live for Jesus.

There are two options for the pursuit of your life:

1. Personal desires.

2. The will of God.

Resolve to live for God. . .

with all you've been given in the time you've been given.

To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Discussion Guide

- Do you have a bucket list? What is on it? If you don't have one, what would you put on a bucket list?
- Have you ever had a difficulty in your life that caused you to re-evaluate your priorities?
- What priorities do people generally re-evaluate towards? Why do you think this is?
- What are some ways we can evaluate if we are pursuing our personal desires or God's will?
- Read Romans 12:3-8. What are similarities you see between this passage and 1 Peter 4:7-11? What differences do you see?
- On a scale of 1-10, how willing are you to become uncomfortable to pursue God's will?
- What spiritual gift(s) do you believe you have? How are you using it?
- How will God be glorified by the pursuits of your life?
- PRAY for God to reveal what you are pursuing in life.
- PRAY for the courage to pursue God's will regardless of where it takes you or what he is calling you to do.

LIVING FOR THE WILL OF GOD

1 Peter 4:1-11

Time is short. Live for Jesus.

There are two options for the pursuit of your life:

1. Personal desires.

2. The will of God.

Resolve to live for God. . .

with all you've been given

in the time you've been given.

To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Discussion Guide

- Do you have a bucket list? What is on it? If you don't have one, what would you put on a bucket list?
- Have you ever had a difficulty in your life that caused you to re-evaluate your priorities?
- What priorities do people generally re-evaluate towards? Why do you think this is?
- What are some ways we can evaluate if we are pursuing our personal desires or God's will?
- Read Romans 12:3-8. What are similarities you see between this passage and 1 Peter 4:7-11? What differences do you see?
- On a scale of 1-10, how willing are you to become uncomfortable to pursue God's will?
- What spiritual gift(s) do you believe you have? How are you using it?
- How will God be glorified by the pursuits of your life?
- PRAY for God to reveal what you are pursuing in life.
- PRAY for the courage to pursue God's will regardless of where it takes you or what he is calling you to do.