

A HOLY GOD, A HOLY SPACE, A HOLY PEOPLE

Exodus 25-30; 35:4-40:33

Three surprising things about the tabernacle:

1. The fact that there was a tabernacle
2. The nature of the tabernacle
3. The current absence of the tabernacle

What do we learn about God from the tabernacle?

God desires to be with his people!

God is humble and unique.

God is not demanding or unreasonable in his requests.

God comes to his people to serve them, not to be served.

What difference does learning about the tabernacle make in my life today? Begg the questions:

Do I really want the presence of God in my life?

Where will I take the presence of God with my life?

Family & Group Discussion Guide

- Did you watch the coronation of King Charles? If so, what did you think of it?
- What do you think the different aspects of the coronation say about the British monarchy?
- Is there anything you found surprising or interesting from our study of the tabernacle?
- How do you think the Israelites may have responded when they heard the instructions for the tabernacle?
- READ Leviticus 26:11-13.
 - How does this passage support what we learned as to why God wanted to have a tabernacle built?
- READ Exodus 31:1-6. What did God do to provide what was needed to build the tabernacle?
 - What does this say about God?
 - How might God interact similarly with people today?
- How would you answer the final two questions:
 - Do I really want the presence of God in my life?
 - Where will I take the presence of God with my life?
- PRAY for God to show you what he has provided you so that you might become a holy place for his presence.
- PRAY for God to send you ANYWHERE that his presence might be displayed through you.

A HOLY GOD, A HOLY SPACE, A HOLY PEOPLE

Exodus 25-30; 35:4-40:33

Three surprising things about the tabernacle:

1. The fact that there was a tabernacle
2. The nature of the tabernacle
3. The current absence of the tabernacle

What do we learn about God from the tabernacle?

God desires to be with his people!

God is humble and unique.

God is not demanding or unreasonable in his requests.

God comes to his people to serve them, not to be served.

What difference does learning about the tabernacle make in my life today? Begg the questions:

Do I really want the presence of God in my life?

Where will I take the presence of God with my life?

Family & Group Discussion Guide

- Did you watch the coronation of King Charles? If so, what did you think of it?
- What do you think the different aspects of the coronation say about the British monarchy?
- Is there anything you found surprising or interesting from our study of the tabernacle?
- How do you think the Israelites may have responded when they heard the instructions for the tabernacle?
- READ Leviticus 26:11-13.
 - How does this passage support what we learned as to why God wanted to have a tabernacle built?
- READ Exodus 31:1-6. What did God do to provide what was needed to build the tabernacle?
 - What does this say about God?
 - How might God interact similarly with people today?
- How would you answer the final two questions:
 - Do I really want the presence of God in my life?
 - Where will I take the presence of God with my life?
- PRAY for God to show you what he has provided you so that you might become a holy place for his presence.
- PRAY for God to send you ANYWHERE that his presence might be displayed through you.