

FULLY DEVOTED TO OUR NEIGHBORS

Luke 10:25-38

We are fully devoted to Christ, our neighbors, and the nations.

To truly love your neighbor, you must first fully love God.

Everyone is your neighbor — Everyone.

Your feet won't move in a direction your heart is not aimed — Compassion is key.

“You go, and do likewise.”

GROUP / FAMILY DISCUSSION

- Describe your strangest experience with a next-door neighbor or co-worker.
- Read 1 John 3:16-17 and 4:7-11. What does this passage tell us about:
 - How love is expressed to others?
 - Our motivation to love others?
 - The relationship between God's love for us and our love for others?
- What person or group of people feels like a 'nonneighbor' to you? Why?
- What do you think might be something they are struggling with? How can you have compassion for them?
- Name one neighbor or family you can invite to visit with your family or Life Group.
- Commit to pray for your neighbors regularly.
 - Try using www.blesseveryhome.com
 - Send a postcard to your neighbors telling them you are praying for them and invite them to call, email, or write back with prayer requests.
- Pray together for your neighbors.
