

LIVE DEVOTED

You can't live fully devoted to Christ and blend in with the world.

Daniel 3

TRUTH FROM THE STORY: DANIEL 2

The veneration of the gods. (1-7)

The accusation of the Jews. (8-12)

The confrontation with the king. (13-18)

The condemnation to the fire. (19-23)

The salvation from the flame. (24-27)

The adoration of the LORD. (28-30)

TRUTH FOR TODAY:

God, alone, is the ultimate authority.

. . . of the world.

. . . in your life.

Lift your eyes and tear down your idols.

Be fully devoted to Christ not only to death but also in life.

Trust God's ability; expect His presence.

GROUP / FAMILY DISCUSSION

1. "God is the ultimate authority." Does this statement make you peaceful or nervous? Why?
2. What are some "idols" that people around you worship? Are there "idols" in your life that need to be torn down or resisted? What are they?
3. Are you willing to die for Christ? How does that affect your decisions tomorrow? What is one practical thing you will do differently tomorrow to be more fully devoted?
4. Describe a "fiery" test of your faith that you have or are going through. How has your faith grown? How has God met you in the flame?

LIVE DEVOTED

You can't live fully devoted to Christ and blend in with the world.

Daniel 3

TRUTH FROM THE STORY: DANIEL 2

The veneration of the gods. (1-7)

The accusation of the Jews. (8-12)

The confrontation with the king. (13-18)

The condemnation to the fire. (19-23)

The salvation from the flame. (24-27)

The adoration of the LORD. (28-30)

TRUTH FOR TODAY:

God, alone, is the ultimate authority.

. . . of the world.

. . . in your life.

Lift your eyes and tear down your idols.

Be fully devoted to Christ not only to death but also in life.

Trust God's ability; expect His presence.

GROUP / FAMILY DISCUSSION

1. "God is the ultimate authority." Does this statement make you peaceful or nervous? Why?
2. What are some "idols" that people around you worship? Are there "idols" in your life that need to be torn down or resisted? What are they?
3. Are you willing to die for Christ? How does that affect your decisions tomorrow? What is one practical thing you will do differently tomorrow to be more fully devoted?
4. Describe a "fiery" test of your faith that you have or are going through. How has your faith grown? How has God met you in the flame?

