

have a faith that speaks.

GOSPEL

CONVERSATIONS

WEEK 1 – WHY SHARE YOUR FAITH?

Main Idea: Evangelism isn't optional; it's a command empowered by the Spirit, and we are Christ's ambassadors.

1. The Commission of Christ

- The Great Commission (Matt. 28:18–20) is given to _____.
- Jesus' authority is the _____ for our going.
- Evangelism is not a suggestion; it's a _____.
- Jesus wants you to know that you are _____.

What excuse do you hide behind when Jesus has already commanded you to go?

2. The Call to be Ambassadors

- Paul says we are _____ for Christ (2 Cor. 5:18–20).
- An ambassador represents the _____ of their home country in a foreign land.
- As Christ's ambassadors:
 - We _____ on His behalf.
 - We _____ His values and character.
 - Our message: "_____."

What step do you need to take to live more like Christ's representative?

3. The Role of the Holy Spirit in Us

- The Spirit gives us _____ to be witnesses (Acts 1:8).
- The Spirit _____ with boldness, courage, and words when we don't know what to say (Luke 12:11–12).
- Evangelism is not about _____, it's about Spirit-dependence.

What would change if you actually relied on the Spirit in every conversation?

4. The Role of the Holy Spirit in the World

- The Spirit _____ of sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:7–11).
- We don't have to "argue people into the kingdom", the Spirit _____.
- Our role is _____ in sharing; God's role is opening eyes.

What excuse do you need to lay down this week?

LIVE IT OUT

Pray for boldness as Christ's ambassador. Write down 2–3 names of people who need Jesus and commit to pray for them daily.