ACTS 10:1-8
GOD USES FAITHFUL SERVANTS

I. Another Unlikely Choice (vs 1-2)

II. An Unexpected Conversation (vs 3-6)

III. An Unquestioned Compliance (vs 7-8)

APPLYING TRUTH: ACTS 10:1-8

Q1. In verse 2, we hear the eternal testimony of Cornelius. The word says, “[Cornelius is] a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God.”

- » Ought this testimony be more common in the followers of Christ, or is Cornelius unique?
- » Is this the testimony that others would see in you? Explain...
- » How would God work in you to make this a testimony true, or truer in you?

Q2. In verse 7-8, the unlikely servant Cornelius quickly obeys the message from God and calls another devoted man and two faithful servants to carry out the mission given by God.

- » There is no recorded push-back, no argument. How likely are you to simply receive the marching orders?
- » What might hinder you from this example of submission and immediate obedience?
- » How might things need to change in your life to live in such a manner that when offered an assignment, you simply are able to say, “Yes Lord, I go!”
