SERMON NOTES

Christ's Power in You 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 - Pew Bible #738-739 Mickey Matlock

Introduction: Today we need _____ more than ever. We need Him to _____ our lives and this world. If you think you don't need Him today, just try to go without _____ for a couple minutes.

- Because of the _____, fallen state of the world, God allows for "thorns" in our lives.
 - You might be _____ if it is God's will that you or a loved one has a disease, or when we lose a loved one, or your family situation is much less than you desire.
 - When we ask if it is God's will, we must return to _____.
 - God's will was for a _____: without death, disease, injury, or pain of any kind.
 - Our pride in Genesis 3 _____ God's will.
- Our primary response should be to _____ with God about our weaknesses.
 - There are two _____ when we cause distance between us and God.
 - When we _____ and _____ we only prolong the inevitable.
 - When we _____ our Father in our trials and temptations He is quick to forgive, correct, and restore.
- In His grace, our Father will supply us with all we _____.
 - As you sit here today, God has _____ you have had all you need to get to this point.
 - _____ is why scripture tells us that it is impossible to please God without faith. Hebrews 11
- It is counterintuitive but, as we recognize and realize our own _____ Christ's power is made _____ in us.
 - If we will _____ our sin before God, He will _____ us.
 - If we will allow God to show us our _____ He will be _____ in us.

Conclusion: We all have weakness, brokenness, unfulfilled dreams, and unmet expectations in our lives. What are you going to do with yours? Will you run and hide with them? Or will you take yours to your Father and allow Him to restore your soul today?
