Jennifer is a pastor's wife embracing life in small-town Oklahoma after ministering for 14 years in Houston, Texas. She and her husband Matt have two daughters, Chloe and Claire, who will both be attending Oklahoma Baptist University this fall. Jennifer is on an adventure as a home health nurse in rural Oklahoma. She loves long walks, black coffee, writing when she gets a chance, and intentionally investing in teenagers and women at her church.

We will be taking up an offering for the Gideons in all three services NEXT SUNDAY

SERMON NOTES

"M.C.H.A. Accountability = Catalyst"
Hebrews 4:11-16 - Pew Bible #761
Pastor Mike Roberson

Introduction: We are attempting to M.C.H.A. We have discussed 7 core habits that will leverage change in your Faithwalk. Romans 1:16-17
Disciple = a _____ follower of Jesus. The most powerful catalyst of all: _____. You will need to _____ someone to hold you accountable to become a disciple of Jesus. This passage is going to tell believers they must _____ an account to God. v. 13

_____ = unbelief flowing from a hardened heart. The reward for obedience is _____. v. 11

Of _____ by grace not by works.

Of _____ towards maturity.

Of kingdom _____ in the Millennium.

We have to _____ enter that rest area. v. 11

I. Reason _____ we should be held accountable. v. 12-13

a. Word of God is not _____.

i. _____.

ii. _____.

iii. _____.

b. We must give account to God; therefore, we _____ seek accountability with one another.

c. Intentional accountability = _____ growth.

d. Unintentionality = The slow fade to a loss of _____. I Corinthians 3:9-15

II. We have the _____ help. v. 14-15

a. We have a great _____.

i. Made it _____ heaven to earth and back.

ii. _____ with our weakness.

iii. Tempted in all ways like we are, but _____ sinned.

III. Therefore, we _____ go to Him. v. 16

a. To the _____ of God's throne, not a game.

i. Obtain mercy = don't get what we _____.
1. _____, not perfection is the goal.

ii. Find grace = _____ favor.
1. _____ grace to yourself and others.

Conclusion: Create Accountability:

1. Find _____ people, not gossips.
2. Find a prayer _____, not a keyboard warrior.
3. Seek God's _____, not man's information.
4. Must be _____ proximity for regularity.
5. Willing to ask hard questions, fighting for _____.
6. _____ the best of us, even when they see the worst in us.
