Philippians: The Hope of Joy

Philippians 1:27-30

Living worthy of the Gospel of Christ results in:

1. Freedom and reconciliation for our past life
2. Hope and peace for our present life
3. Inexhaustible joy for our future life

As our conduct becomes worthy of the Gospel of Christ we will:

1. Declare the Gospel
2. Defend the Gospel
3. Display the Gospel

“Paul reminds us that in the Gospel we are both brought lower and raised higher than we can imagine.”

- Tim Keller

“Why should people believe our defence of the cause of Christ if they cannot see Christ in us, or take any notice of our offer of a saving Christ if they do not see the fruits of salvation in the beauty of holy living?”

- J. Alec Motyer
The Message of Philippians

“When Paul wanted to encourage Christians, he did not say that their breakthrough was around the corner; he helped them to make sense of their suffering in light of the coming reign of Christ. If we suffer with him, we will reign with him.”

- Dr. Esau McCaulley

“Worship is the submission of all of our nature to God. It is the quickening of conscience by His holiness, nourishment of mind by His truth, purifying of imagination by His beauty, opening of the heart to His love, and submission of will to His purpose. And all this gathered up in adoration is the greatest of human expressions of which we are capable.”

- William Temple
