The Story of Christmas:
Genesis to Revelation

The Story of Christmas: Genesis to Revelation

The grand, overarching narrative of scripture:

Creation - Fall - Redemption - Restoration

“I believe in the poetic genius of a creator who would choose to express such unfathomable power as a child born in straw poverty.”

- Bono

Big Questions:

- Why is there something rather than nothing?
- Where did everything come from?
- Who are we?
- Why are we here?
- What is the meaning of life?

I. Both Creation and Advent began in the dark.

“Be still my soul when light you cannot see
That trembling skies speak to the fear in thee
The face of God illuminates the night
Unending peace and trust His perfect light”

- Katharina von Schlegel

2. We were intentionally designed and we belong to our Creator.

“Creation is not meant to be a stopping point for your worship, but rather a stimulant.”

- Paul Tripp

3. The proclamation of Advent is that Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, has come and broken the power of darkness!

“The Creator creatively became the created to re-create His creation.”

“From all that dwell below the skies,
let the Creator’s praise arise;
let the Redeemer’s Name be sung,
through every land by every tongue!”

- Isaac Watts
