Christ Our Hope in Life and Death

Luke 19:37-48

The background of the image is a complex, abstract composition of colors and textures. It features a rich palette of greens, blues, and browns, with intricate, swirling patterns that suggest marbled paper or a textured surface. The colors are layered and blended, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall effect is one of organic, natural beauty, with the colors flowing and swirling together in a dynamic fashion.

Be Amazed

The background of the image is a piece of marbled paper. It features a complex, organic pattern of colors, primarily in shades of green, blue, and teal, with some darker, almost black, areas. The colors are blended and streaked together, creating a rich, textured appearance. The lighting seems to come from the right, highlighting the green and yellowish-green areas, while the left side is darker, dominated by deep blues and blacks.

“Christianity is in its very essence a rescue religion.”

- John Stott

“Jesus came the first time, and he is coming again, as the king over all kings. King of Israel, king of all the nations, king of nature and the universe. Until he comes again, there is a day of amnesty and forgiveness and patience. He still rides a donkey and not yet a white war-horse with a rod of iron. He is ready to save all who receive him as Savior and Treasure and King. Come to him. Know him. Receive him. Live your life in allegiance to him.”

- John Piper
