

Prayer

Heavenly Father, we come before You today with open hearts and minds. We ask that You guide our discussion and help us to be receptive to what You want us to learn. May we prioritize the important aspects of our lives and put You first in everything we do. Amen.

What is one small thing you did this week that brought you joy?

Key Verses

1. John 10:10
2. Matthew 26:6-13
3. 2 Corinthians 5:21

Questions

1. What are the 'big stones' in your life that you must prioritize?
2. How do you balance your 'big stones' and 'small stones'?
3. Why do you think it's challenging to prioritize the big stones first?
4. What does the story of the woman anointing Jesus teach us about generosity?
5. How can we apply the concept of sacrificial giving in our own lives?
6. Do you identify more as a saver or a spender? How does this affect your view on generosity?
7. What steps can you take to ensure your relationship with Jesus remains a priority?
8. How can we support each other in our journey to prioritize the important aspects of our lives?

Life Application

This week, identify one 'big stone' you have neglected and consciously prioritize it. Whether it's spending more time with family, focusing on your health, or deepening your relationship with Jesus, take actionable steps to give it the attention it deserves.

Key Takeaways

1. Prioritize the most important aspects of your life first.
2. Generosity should be a big rock in our lives, not an afterthought.
3. Sacrificial giving profoundly expresses our love and trust in Jesus.
4. Balancing our priorities requires intentionality and effort.

5. Jesus should always be at the center of our priorities.

Ending Prayer

Lord, thank You for this time of discussion and reflection. Help us to apply what we have learned today to our lives. May we always prioritize You and the important aspects of our lives. Guide us in our journey to be more generous and sacrificial in our giving. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
