CONCLUSION- Paul ends these chapters with a declaration of _____...to God! (Rom. 11:33-36)

<sup>36</sup> For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be _____...forever. Amen.

A SYNOPSIS or BRIEF SUMMARY of ROMANS 9-11

The Apostle Paul is not sorrowful because the Word of God is being nullified by Jewish unbelief (for in fact the Scripture is being fulfilled by Jewish unbelief).

God is revealing His merciful purposes in the salvation of the Gentiles and the stumbling of the Jews.

Paul is, however, sorrowful for the Jewish people themselves, the seed of Abraham, because they are lost.

He prays for them that they might be become Abrahamic, the true people of God as they are meant to be.

Paul knows that they are beloved of God and that God is not through with them yet. God has not cast away His people but has a glorious end for them, as He has promised.

Right now, salvation through Messiah will be for but a few of the Jews, for God's judgments are at work in that nation.

But the few will someday become all.

Paul's heart breaks for His people, not based upon national sentimentality, but for spiritual revitalization.

It is a Spirit-filled, Christ-like, prophetic desire that causes him to marvel and rejoice in the wisdom and purposes of God.

Israel's salvation will be life to the world and the final and greatest revelation of the mercy of God to mankind in Christ Jesus.
