2 Corinthians 2:14-16 (AMP)

But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads and makes evident everywhere the sweet fragrance of the knowledge of Him. For we are the sweet fragrance of Christ which ascends to God, discernible both among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing; to the latter one an aroma from death to death [a fatal, offensive odor], but to the other an aroma from life to life [a vital fragrance, living and fresh]. And who is adequate and sufficiently qualified for these things?

Fragrance

Gratitude is not based on circumstances being pleasant but on confidence that God is at work in all circumstances. Thanksgiving is an act of faith.

Gratitude is one of the marks of spiritual maturity. Complaining focuses on circumstances; thanksgiving focuses on God.

We “CAN” always:

Thank God for His presence

Thank God for His promises

Thank God for His faithfulness

Thank God for His ultimate purpose
