1 Corinthians 12:8 (NKJV)

“for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit.”

Word of Wisdom

A supernatural revelation that provides divine insight or direction on how to handle a situation according to God's will.

Purpose: To guide, give direction, or provide a solution from God's perspective.

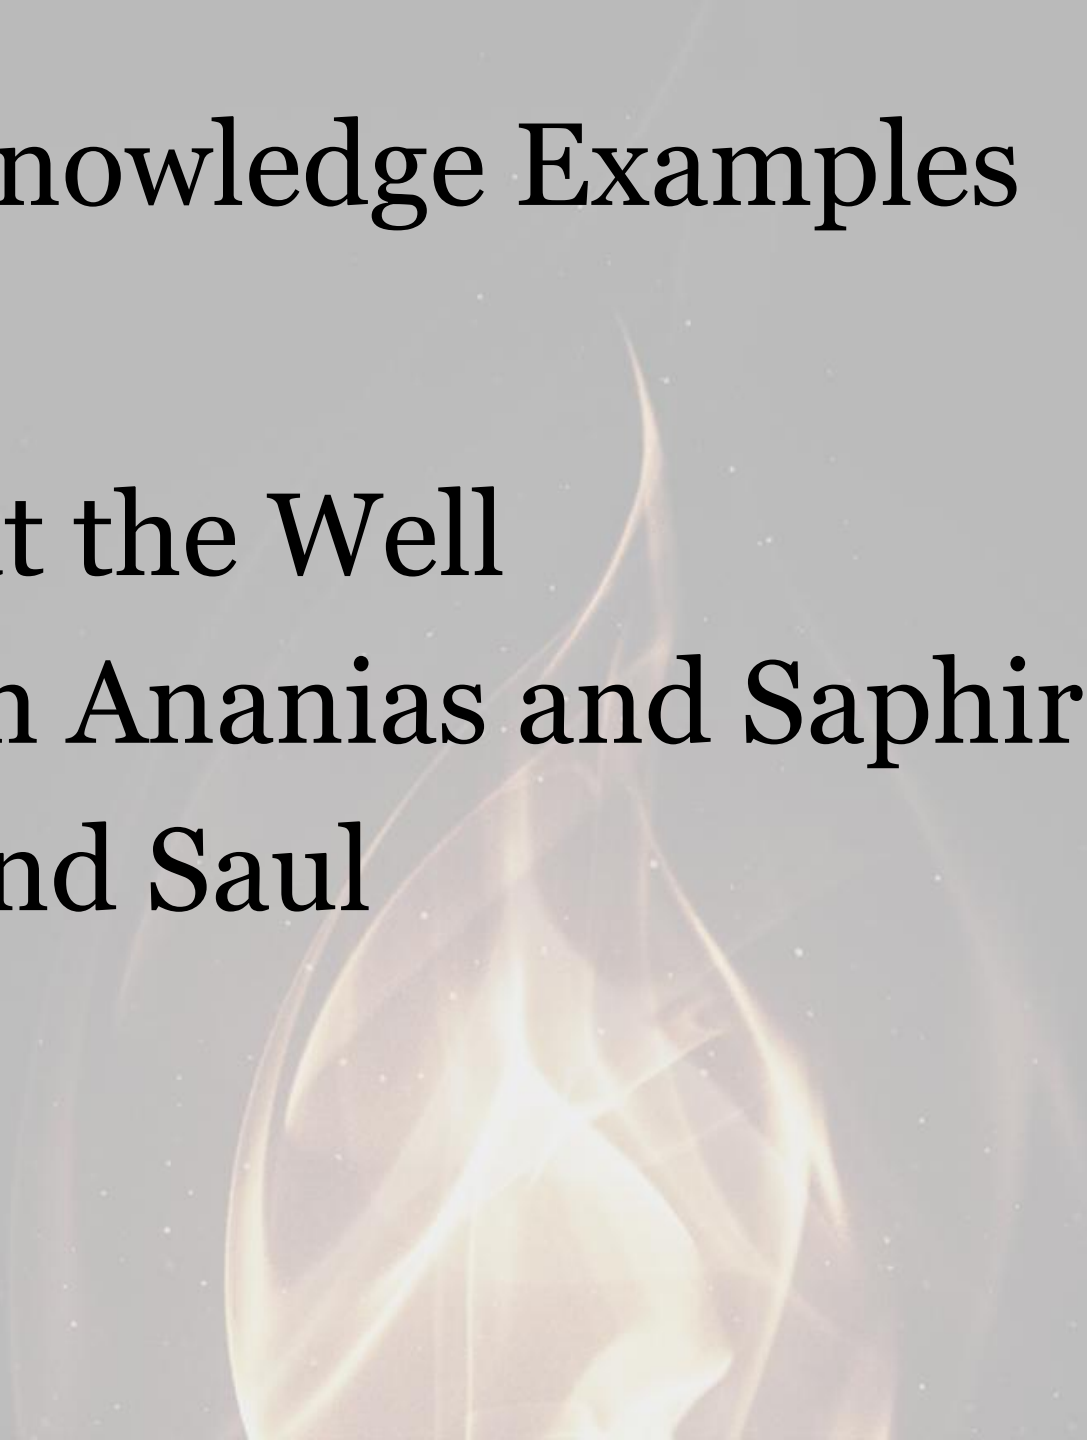

Word of Knowledge

The Word of Knowledge is a supernatural revelation by the Holy Spirit of facts or information that is humanly impossible to know — past or present, but not the future.

Purpose:

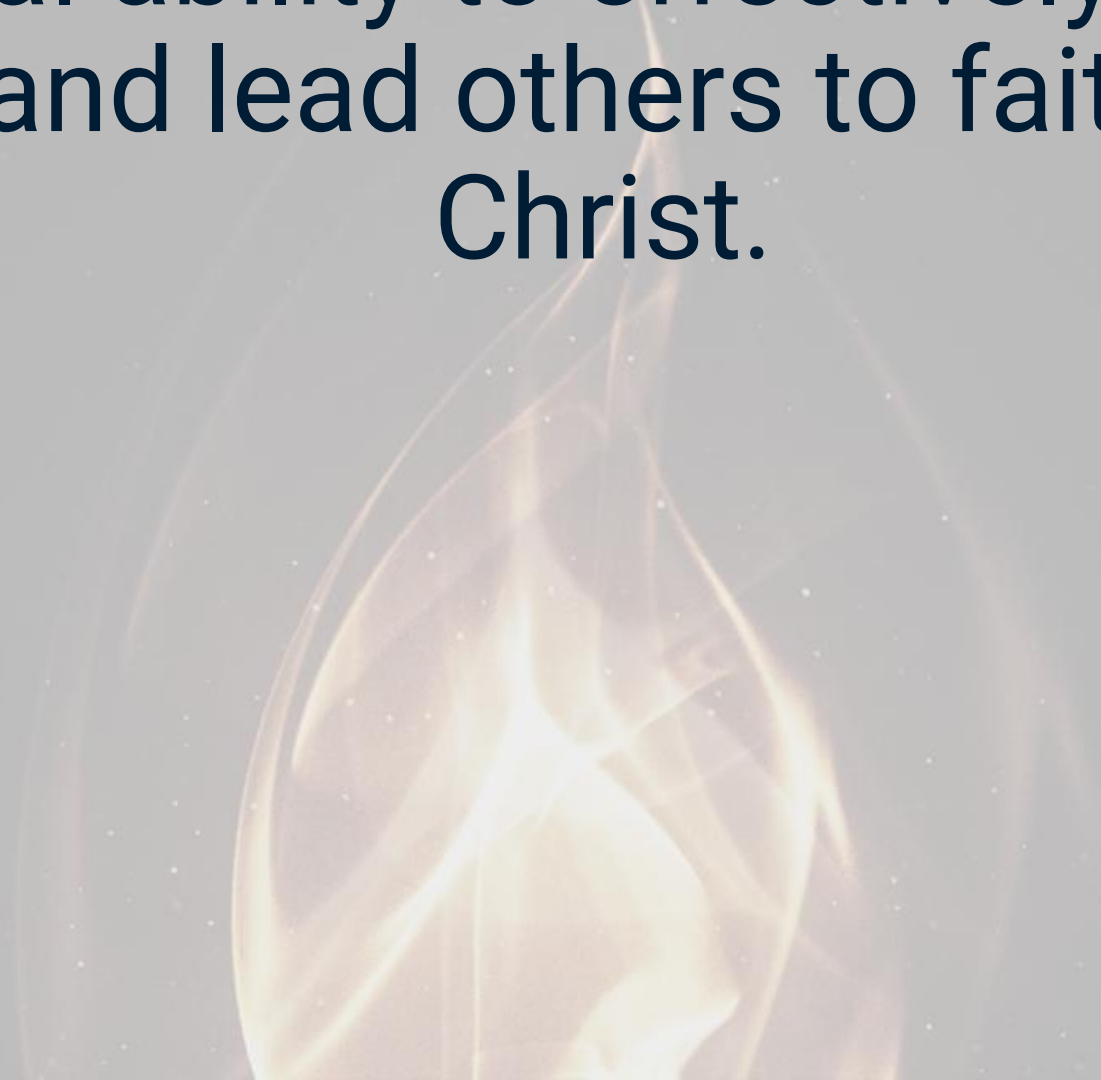

- To bring understanding,
- Uncover hidden truth, or reveal specifics about a situation in order to bring about repentance or healing
- God to demonstrate that He has an intimate knowledge of a situation.

Word of Knowledge Examples

- Woman at the Well
 - Peter with Ananias and Saphira
 - Samuel and Saul
 - Chris

Evangelism

A spiritual ability to effectively share the Gospel and lead others to faith in Jesus Christ.

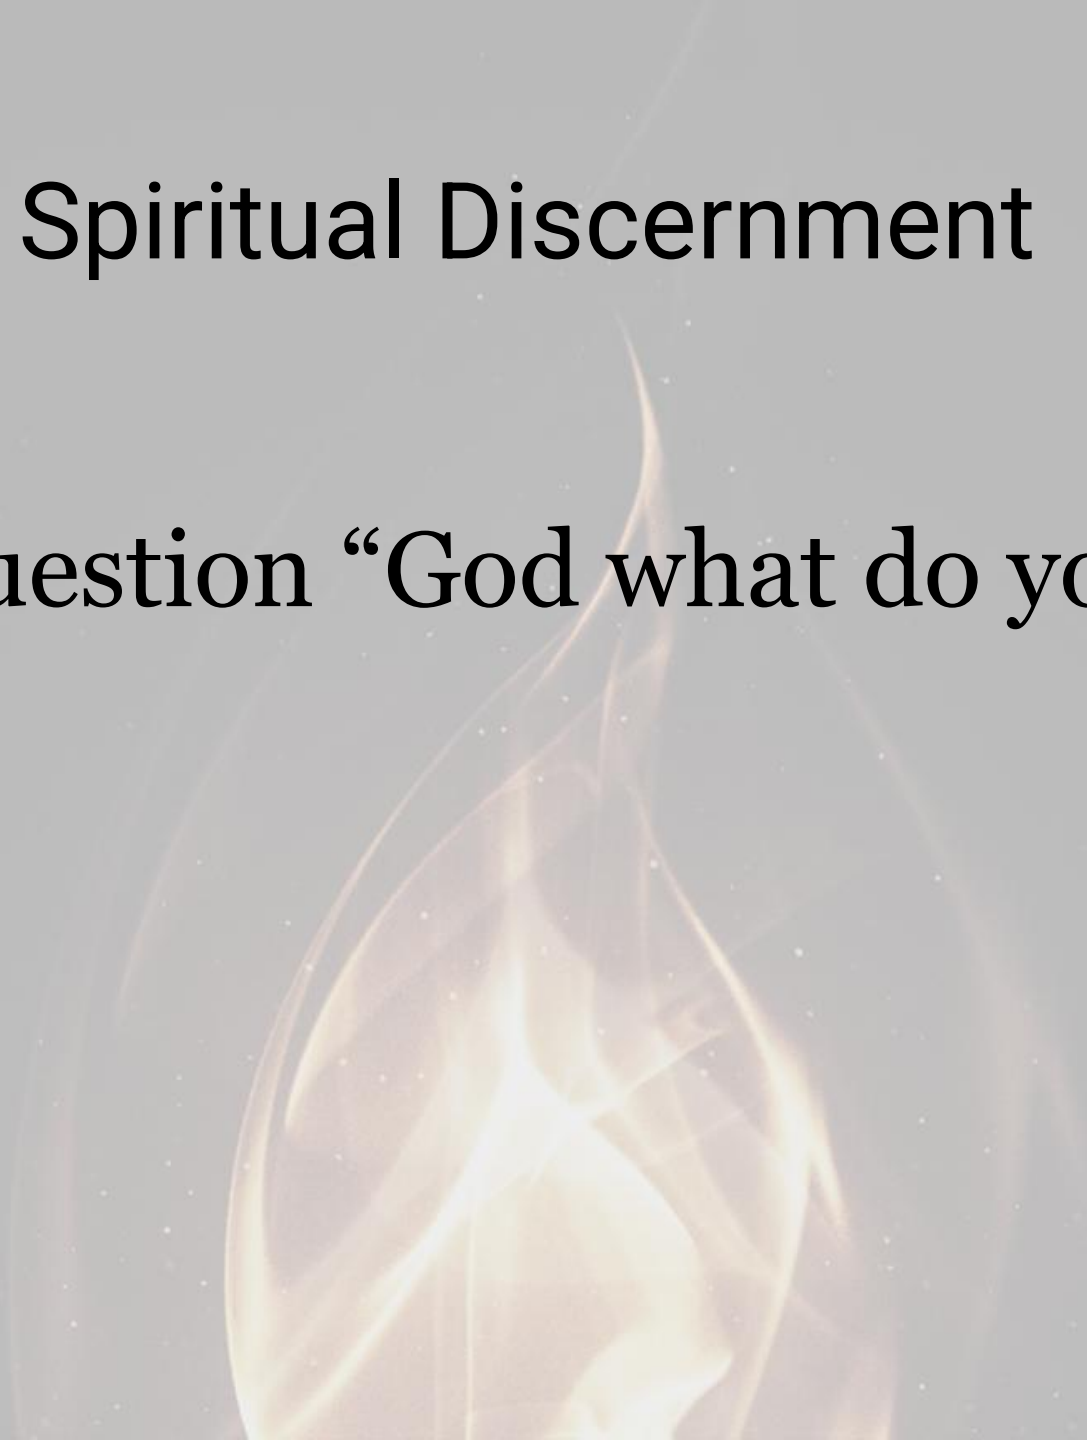

Spiritual Discernment

- The process of seeking and recognizing God's will or guidance in a particular situation or throughout life.
- It involves looking for the deeper spiritual significance of events, choices, or experiences, and distinguishing between influences that are from God, those that are not

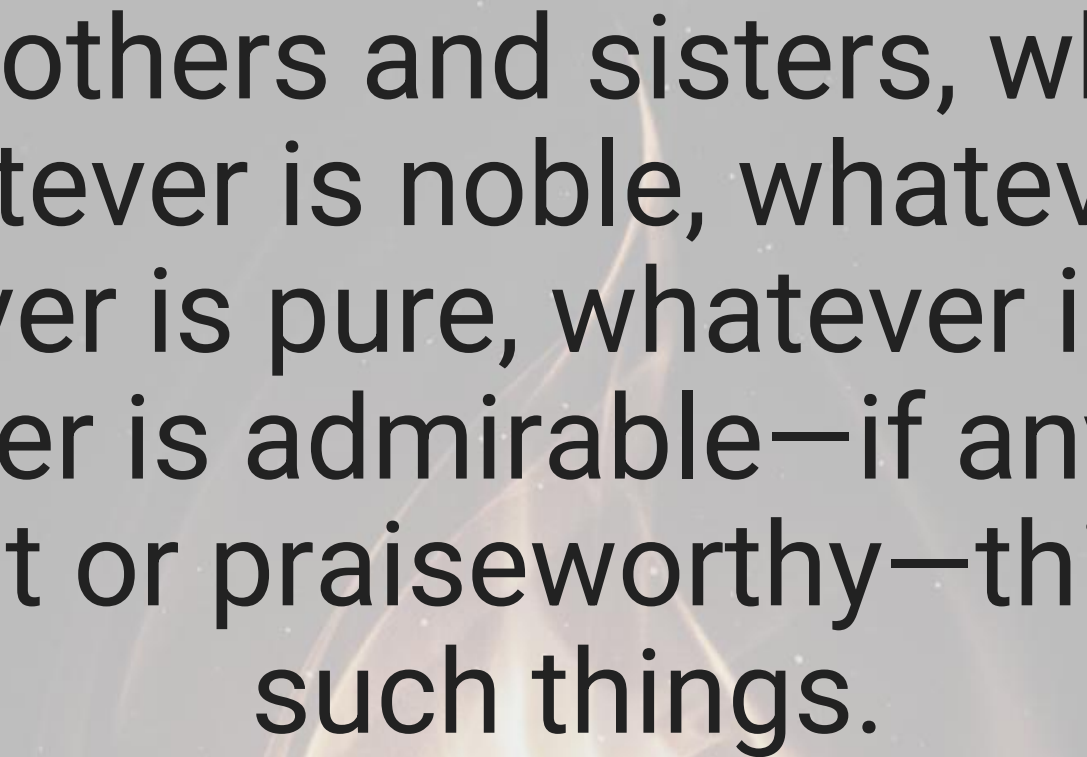

Spiritual Discernment

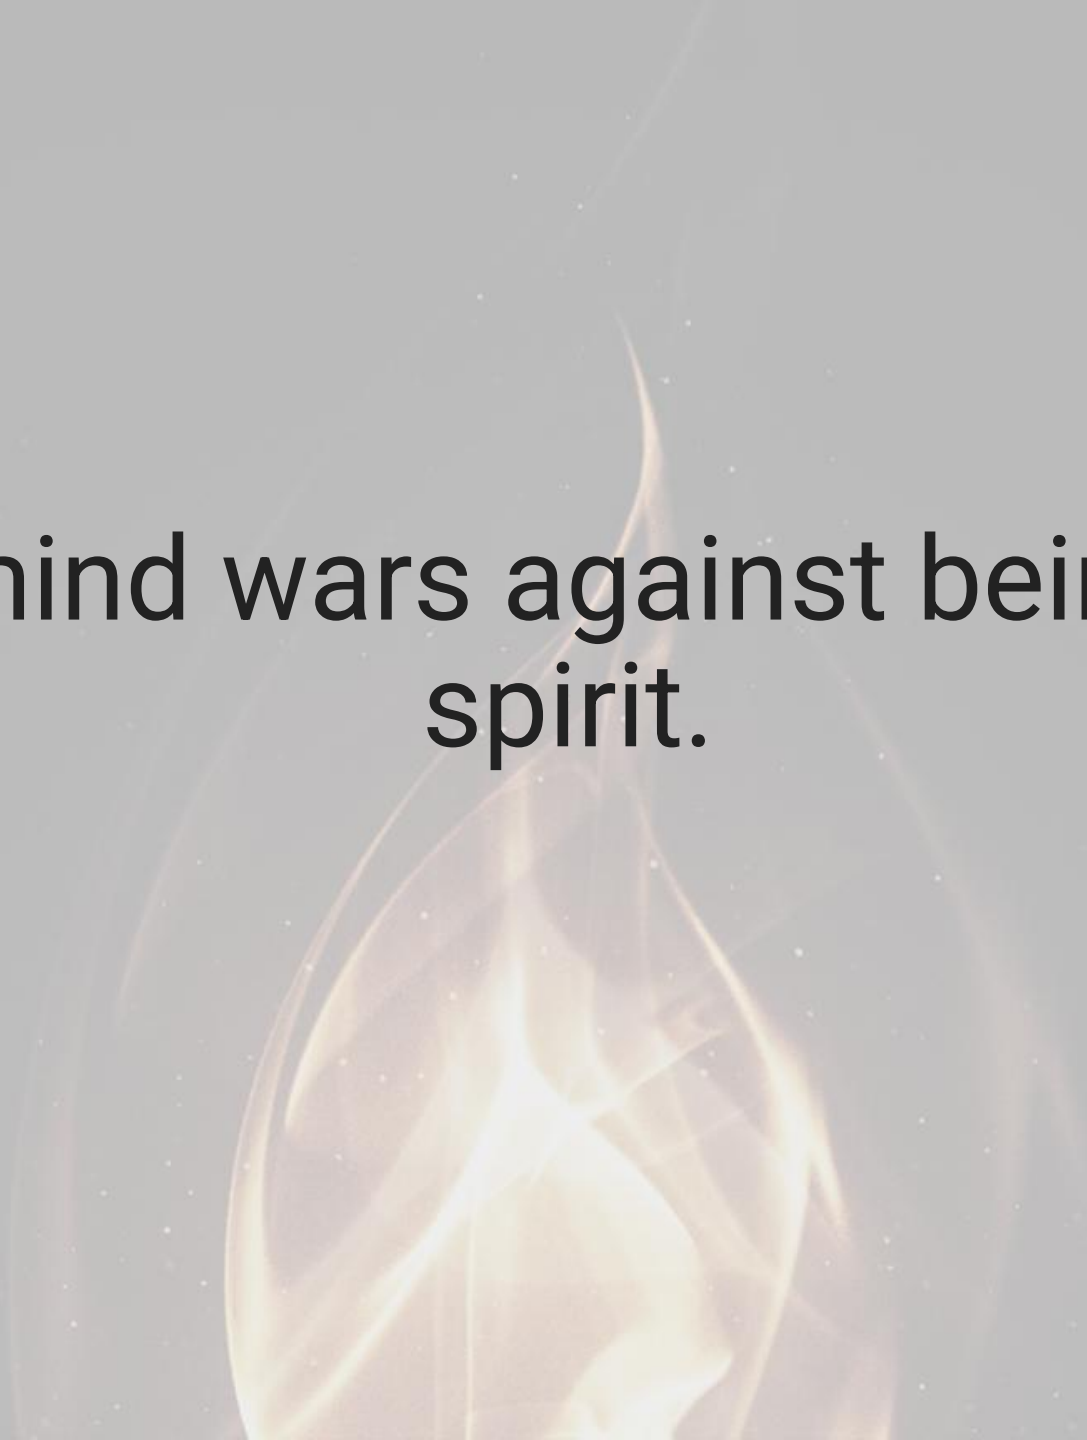

Asking the question “God what do you think about this?”

Phil 4:8

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

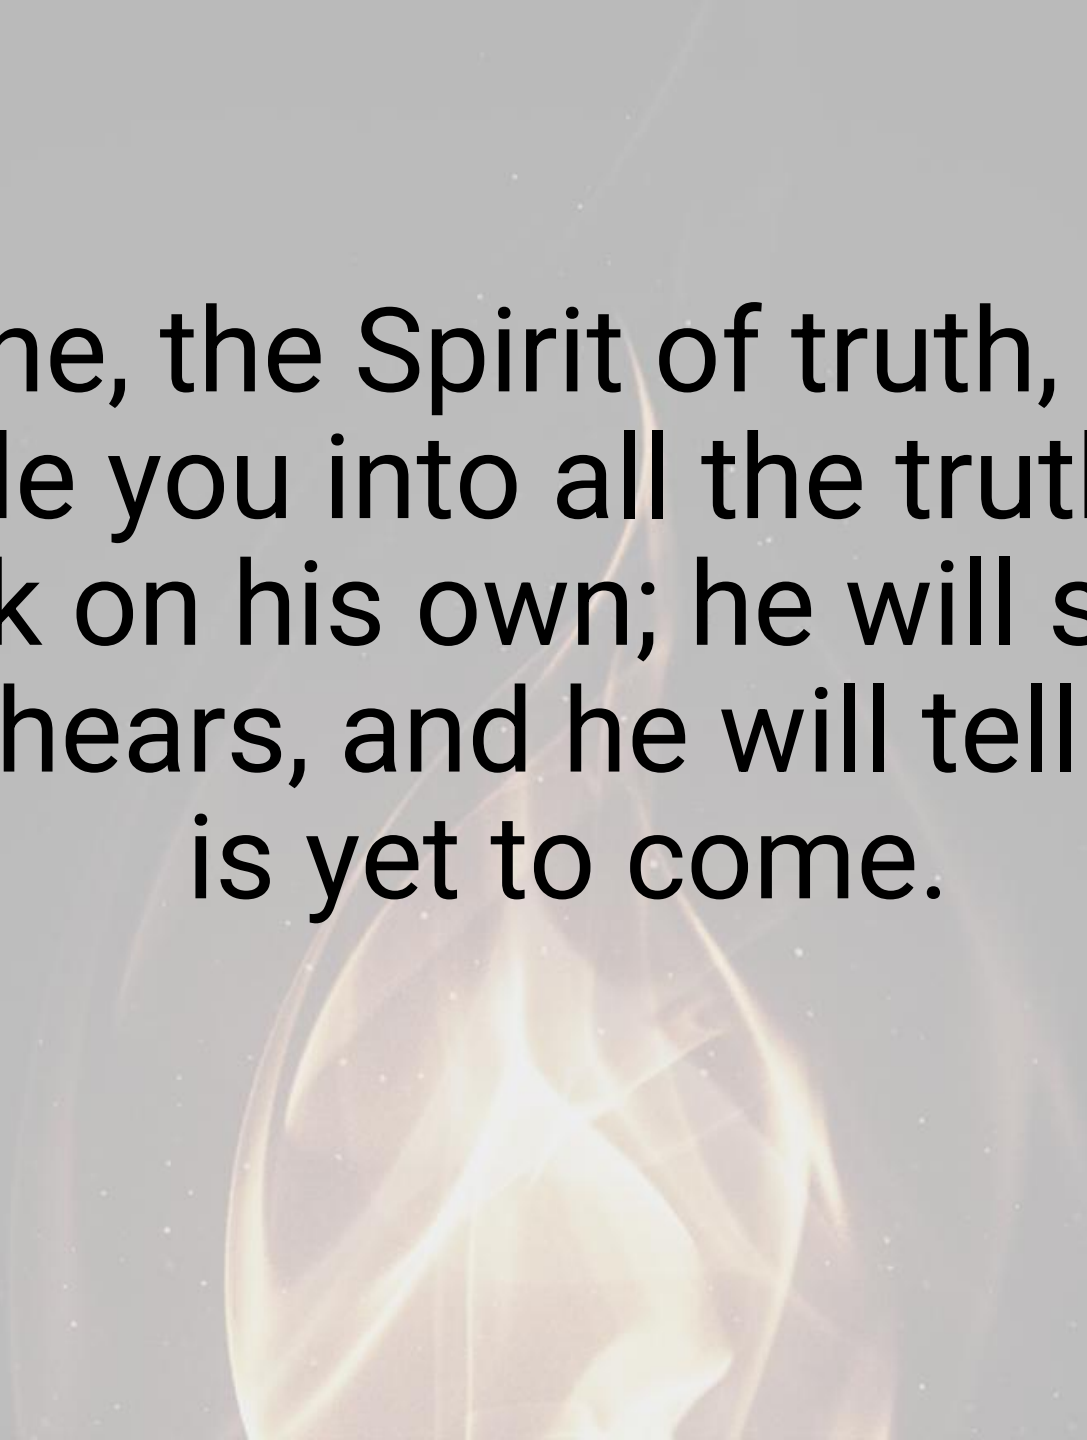

The carnal mind wars against being led by the spirit.

John 16:13

But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

Acts 8:26

Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip,
“Go south to the road—the desert road—
that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of the Kandake.

Acts 8:26

This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship, and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the Book of Isaiah the prophet. The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."

Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked. "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

(he reads the passage to Phillip)

Acts 8:26

The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?" Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus. As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What can stand in the way of my being baptized?" And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him.

Walking by faith, not by sight

We don't get more faith because we understand. We get more understanding because we grow in our faith.

When we step out in faith more understanding comes
