The path leads towards a hazy, mountainous landscape under a bright, warm sky, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is one of journey and perseverance.

THE BOOK OF
JAMES

All In Faith

God would rather us be in or out of the water. He doesn't want us to be lukewarm in our faith.

James gives us examples of how to be ALL IN.

The prayer for this message is God would reveal the next step for everyone here.

13 Look here, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit.” 14 How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone. 15 What you ought to say is, “If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that.” 16 Otherwise you are boasting about your own pretentious plans, and all such boasting is evil.

17 Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

James 4:13-17

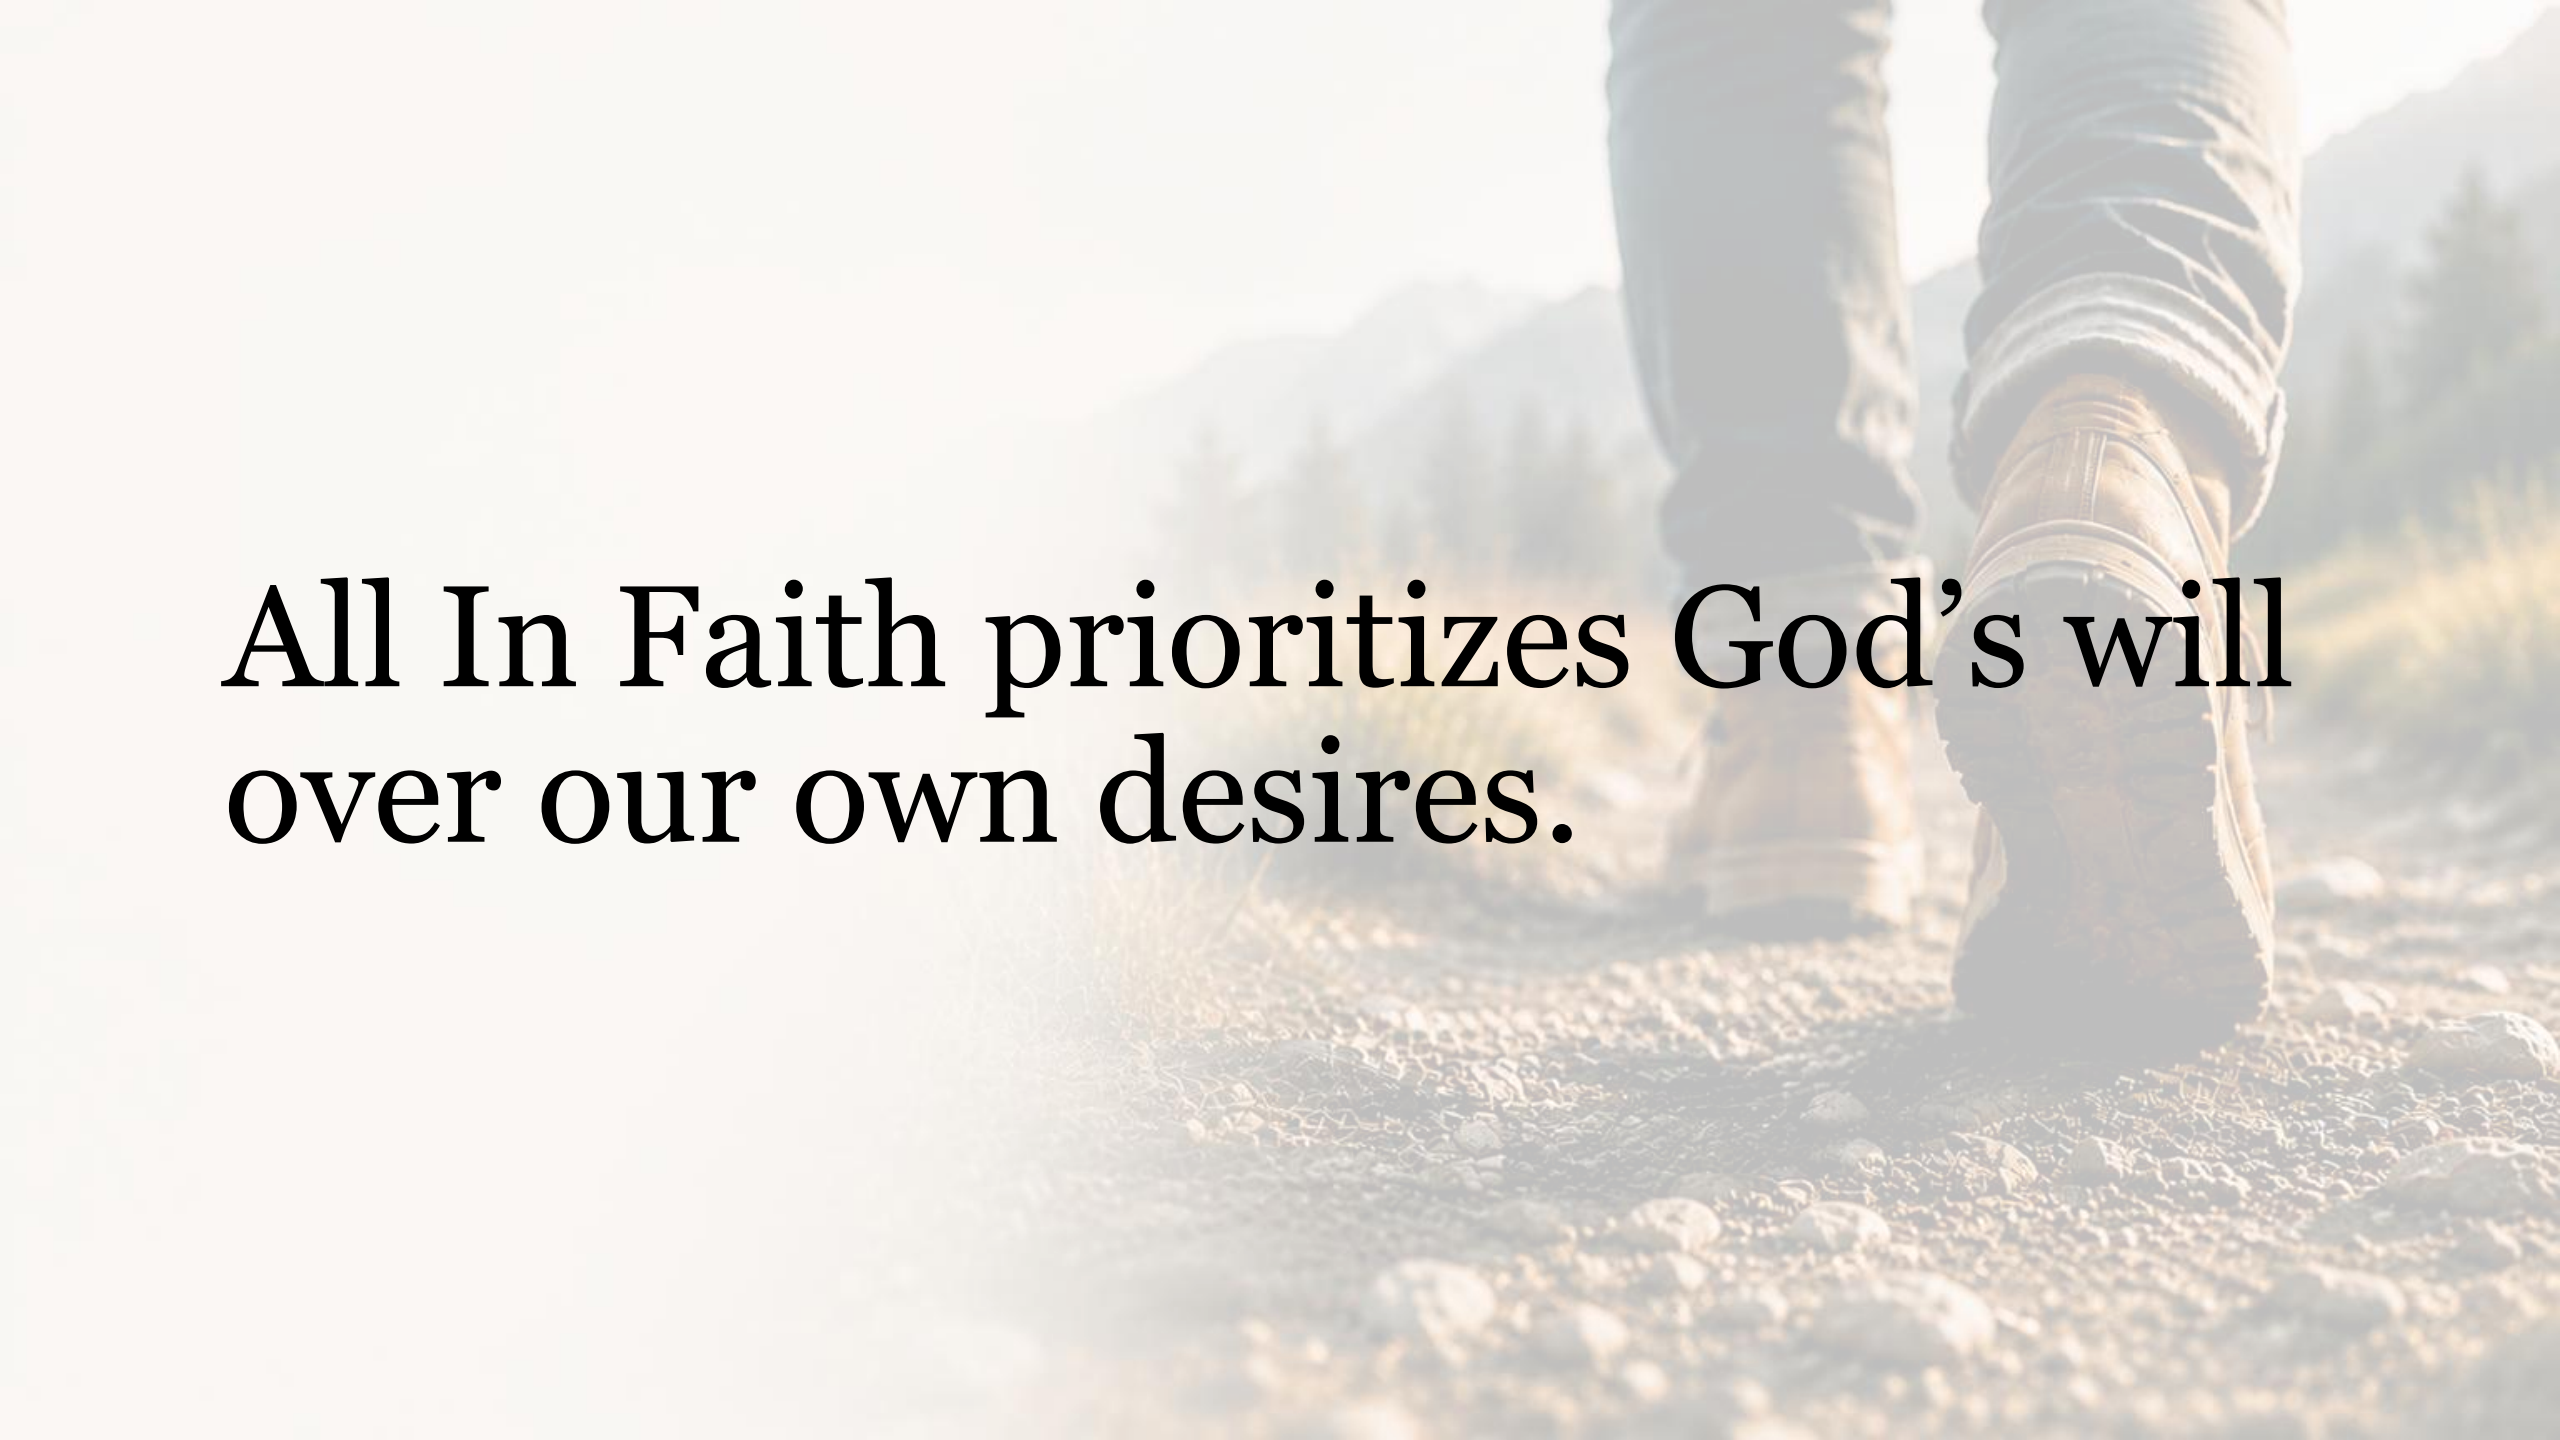

May he grant your heart's desires and make all your plans succeed. (NLT) Psalm 22:3

Plans succeed through good counsel; don't go to war without wise advice. (NLT) Proverbs 20:18

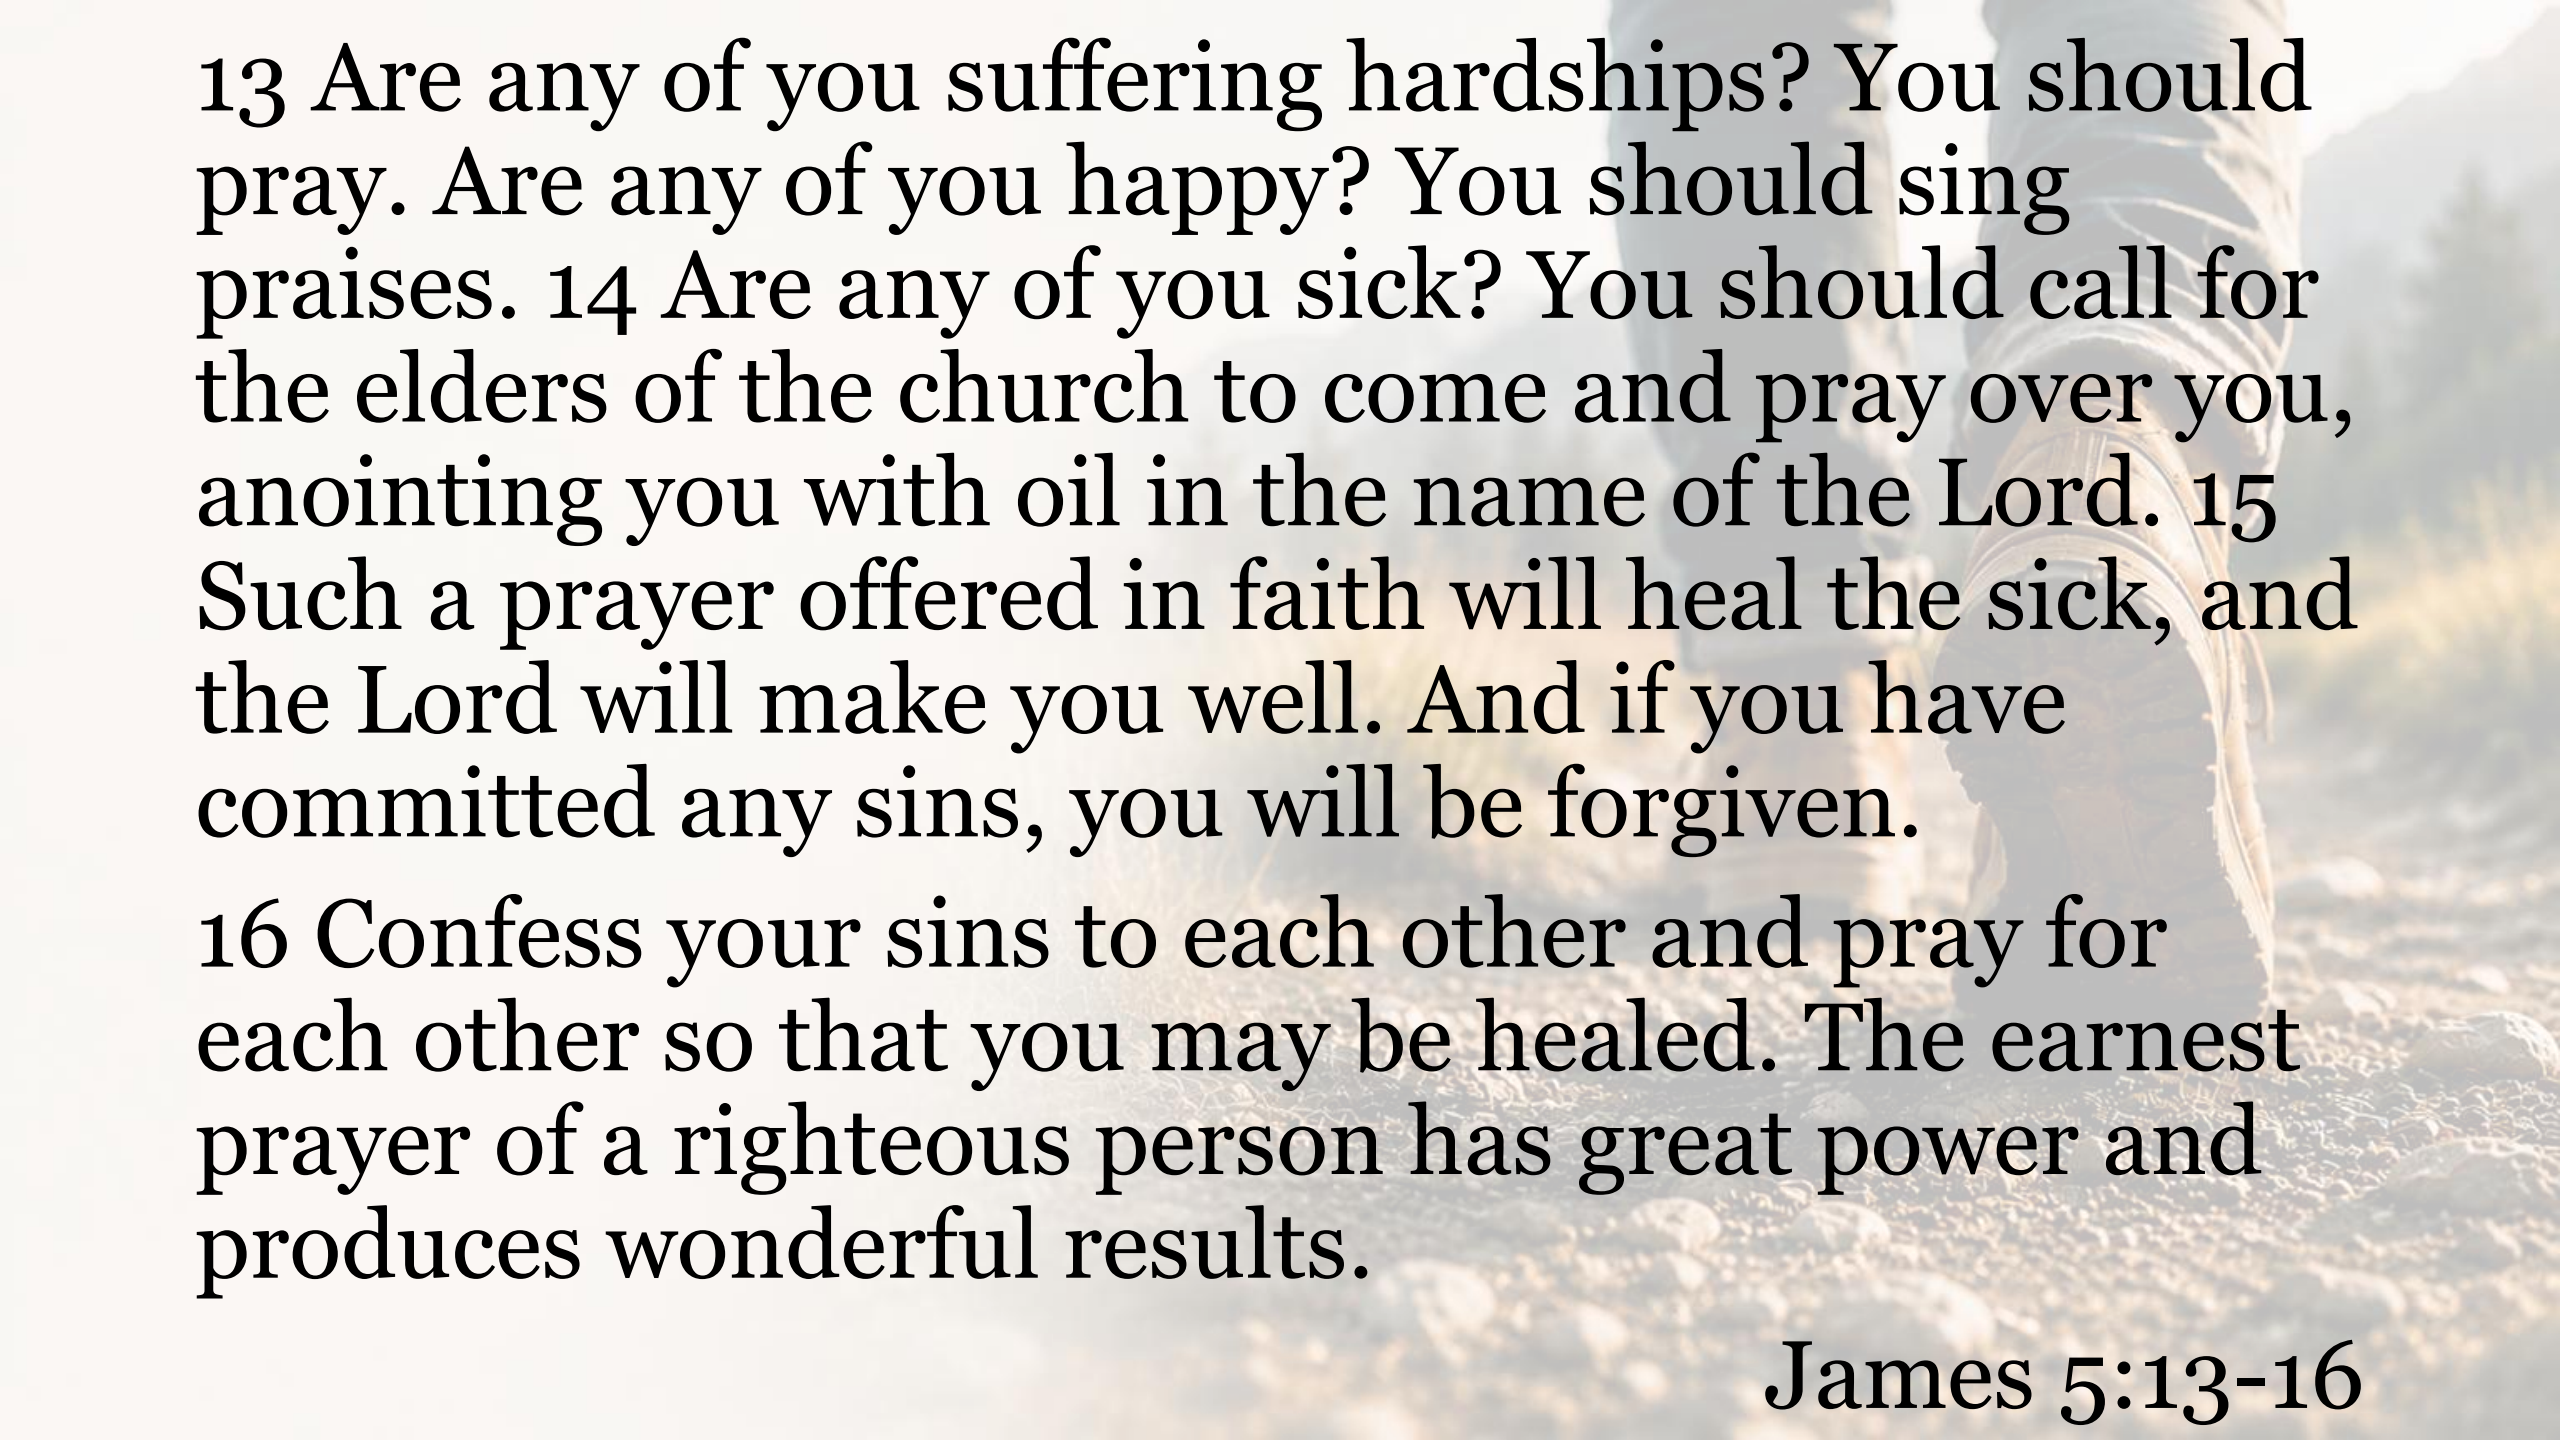

A prudent person foresees danger and takes precautions. The simpleton goes blindly on and suffers the consequences. (NLT) Proverbs 22:3

We can make our plans, but the Lord determines our steps. (NLT) Proverbs 16:9

We can make our own plans, but the Lord gives the right answer. (NLT) Proverbs 16:1

The background is a soft-focus landscape of mountains and trees under a bright, hazy sky. The text "All In Faith prioritizes God's will over our own desires." is overlaid in a black serif font on the left side of the image.

All In Faith prioritizes God's will over our own desires.

13 Are any of you suffering hardships? You should pray. Are any of you happy? You should sing praises. 14 Are any of you sick? You should call for the elders of the church to come and pray over you, anointing you with oil in the name of the Lord. 15 Such a prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, and the Lord will make you well. And if you have committed any sins, you will be forgiven.

16 Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.

James 5:13-16
