

The Forgotten Fear

My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding— indeed, if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.

PSALM 2

For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding. He holds success in store for the upright, he is a shield to those whose walk is blameless, Then you will understand what is right and just and fair—every good path. For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul. Discretion will protect you, and understanding will guard you.”

PSALM 2

That’s the whole story. Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone’s duty.

ECC 12:13 (NLT)

I loved Jesus, but I didn’t fear God

Positional Holiness:

I am holy in God's eyes. I am justified in His eyes.

Behavioral Holiness:

What I do. My thoughts, my actions.

“And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God ask of you but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in obedience to him, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul,”.

Dt 10:12

“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.”

Matt 17:13-14

The starting point

Psalm 147:11 The Lord takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.

Proverbs 9:10
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

Psalm 34:9
Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!
