“For though you have
countless guides in Christ,
you do not have many fathers. For I became your Father in Christ Jesus
through the gospel.

1 Corinthians 4:15

“It Lies Heavy”

Ecclesiastes 6:1-12

Ecclesiastes
6:1-12

There is another evil I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy on mankind.

The Preacher
"Qohelet"

A man to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor,

so that he lacks nothing
of all that he desires, yet

Ecclesiastes

6:1-12

Yet God does not give them
the power to enjoy them,
but a stranger enjoys them.

“Responsibility Lies Heavy”

If a man fathers a hundred children
and lives many years, so that the days
of his years are many,

but his soul is not satisfied
with life's good things,
and he has no burial,

Ecclesiastes

6:1-12

I say that a stillborn is better off than he.
For it comes in vanity and goes in darkness,
and in darkness its name is covered.

Moreover, it has not seen the sun
or known anything,
yet it finds rest rather than he.

Even though he should live
a thousand years twice over,
yet enjoy no good
– do not all go to the one place?

“Failure Lies Heavy”

All the toil of man is for his mouth,
yet his appetite is not satisfied.

For what advantage has the wise man over the fool?

And what does the poor man have
who knows how to conduct himself
before the living?

Better is the sight of the eyes
than the wandering of the appetite:

this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

“Ambition Lies Heavy”

Whatever has come to be
has already been named,
and it is known what man is,
and that he is not able to dispute with one stronger than he.
The more words, the more vanity,

And what is the advantage to man?
For who knows what is good for man
while he lives the few days
of his vain life, which he passes like a shadow?

For who can tell man what will be
after him under the sun?
