MARK 6:30-44

MACHAERUS

MURDER OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

The apostles returned to Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught.

And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while."

For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

And they went away in the boat
to a desolate place by themselves.

Good Shepherds

Make their sheep lie down in green pastures...

"Come away by yourselves"

Good Shepherds

Lead their sheep beside still waters...

"They went away in the boat"

Good Shepherds
See when their sheep need restored...

"To a desolate place by themselves."

Now many saw them going and recognized them,
and they ran there on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them.

When he went ashore he saw a great crowd,

When he went ashore he saw a great crowd,
and He had compassion on them,

Compassion

(a) A feeling of deep sorrow for another who has been stricken by misfortune.

Sheep without a Shepherd

Compassion

- (a) A feeling of deep sorrow for another who has been stricken by misfortune.
- (b) Accompanied by a strong desire to alleviate that suffering.

Because they were like sheep without a shepherd.
And He taught them many things.

And when it grew late, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is now late."

“Send them away to go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

But He answered them,
"You give them something to eat."

And they said to Him,
"Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?"

And He said to them,
"How many loaves do you have? Go and see."

And when they found out, they said,
"Five, and two fish."

Five & Two

"How many do you have? Go and See."

Then He commanded them all to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups, by hundreds and by fifties.

And taking the five loaves and two fish,
He looked up to heaven and said a blessing and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples and set them before the people.

And He divided the two fish among them all.
And they all ate and were satisfied.

And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

Show their sheep the right path...

"You give them something to eat."

Good Shepherds
Guide their sheep to the table...

"Broke the loaves... and set them before the people."

Good Shepherds
Abundantly provide for their sheep...

"They all ate and were satisfied."
