

A stained glass window with a dark leaded glass border. The central panel shows Jesus in profile, facing left, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe and a red cloak. He has a golden halo. A bright rainbow arches over his head against a background of blue and purple clouds. To the right, in a smaller panel, three people are shown sleeping on the ground. The bottom panel shows a landscape with brown earth and green foliage on the left.

Jesus is very strong.

A stained glass window with a central panel showing Jesus in profile, facing left, with a golden halo. A bright beam of light descends from the top left corner onto his head. He is wearing a red robe over a white tunic. His hands are clasped in prayer. The background is a deep blue with white clouds. To the right, a smaller panel shows three people sleeping on the ground. The entire scene is framed by a grid of black lead lines.

Jesus is very strong.
And we are very weak.

A stained glass window with a dark leaded glass pattern. The central figure is Jesus, shown in profile from the chest up, wearing a red robe over a white tunic. He has long, wavy brown hair and a beard, and a golden halo around his head. A bright, multi-colored beam of light (yellow, orange, and blue) shines down from the top left corner onto his head. The background is a deep blue sky with stylized white and pink clouds. In the lower right, three figures are shown sleeping on the ground, their bodies rendered in shades of purple and blue. The entire scene is framed by a border of red and blue glass panes, with small decorative gold-colored crosses at the intersections.

Jesus is very strong.
And we are very weak.

1 CORINTHIANS 2:3

I came to you in weakness—timid and trembling.

2 CORINTHIANS 11:28

If I must boast, I would rather boast about the things that show how weak I am.

2 CORINTHIANS 12:9

So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses.

RE:NEW

“the weakest church around”

2 CORINTHIANS 12:9

My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.

2 CORINTHIANS 12:9

My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.

So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

There is a good kind of weakness

A stained glass window with various panels. On the left, a panel shows a saint with a halo, wearing a red robe and white gloves, with hands clasped in prayer. On the right, a panel shows a person in a purple robe kneeling in prayer. The background is composed of many colorful glass panels in shades of blue, purple, red, and yellow.

“

I know I'm weak.
That's why I need Christ.

A stained glass window with a dark leaded glass pattern. The central figure is Jesus, shown in profile from the chest up, wearing a red robe over a white tunic. He has long, wavy brown hair and a beard, and a golden halo around his head. A bright, multi-colored beam of light (yellow, orange, and blue) shines down from the top left corner onto his head. The background is a deep blue sky with stylized white and pink clouds. In the lower right, three figures are shown sleeping on the ground, their bodies rendered in shades of purple and blue. The entire scene is framed by a border of red and blue glass panes, with small decorative gold-colored crosses at the intersections.

Jesus is very strong.
And we are very weak.

