Ecclesiastes

5:4-7

When you vow a vow to God,
do not delay in paying it.

The Preacher
"Qohelet"

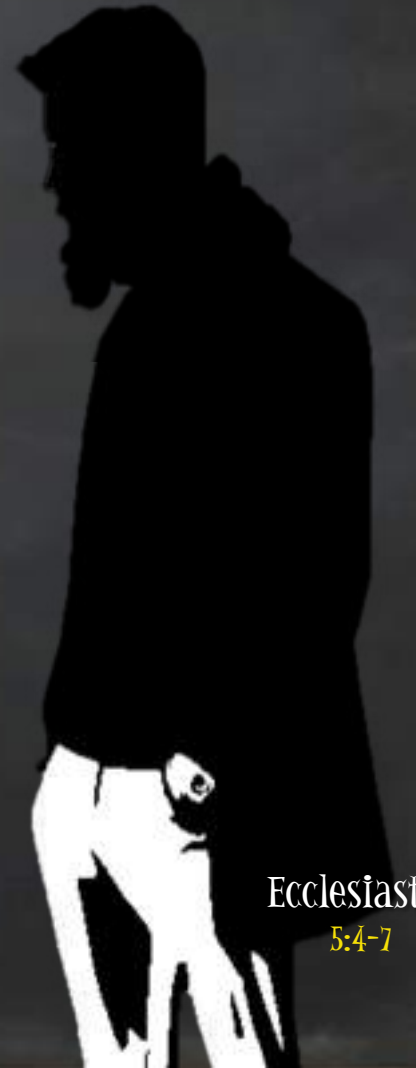

For He has no pleasure in fools.

Pay what you vow.

It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay.

Ecclesiastes

5:4-7

Let not your mouth lead you into sin,
and do not say before the messenger
that it was a mistake.

Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?

“For when dreams increase and words grow many there is vanity,

But God is the one you must fear.”

A rustic, weathered wooden picture frame is mounted on a dark, textured wall. Inside the frame, a scene is depicted: a room with a wooden floor where a crossword puzzle is laid out. The puzzle is partially completed with small wooden blocks. In the background, there are windows and some furniture, suggesting a lived-in space. The overall lighting is warm and dramatic, highlighting the textures of the wood and the scene within the frame.

Ephesians 4:29

A still life scene featuring a rustic wooden frame set against a dark, textured wall. Inside the frame, a crossword puzzle is laid out on a table, with several wooden letter tiles scattered around it. The text "Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouth, but only such as good for building up," is overlaid on the scene in a mix of yellow and white fonts. Below the text, the word "THINK" is spelled out with wooden letter tiles.

THINK

Ephesians 4:29

A rustic, weathered wooden frame is set against a dark, textured wall. Inside the frame, a scene is depicted: a wooden table with a crossword puzzle grid. Several wooden letter blocks are scattered on the table, and the word 'THINK' is spelled out in a row of five blocks. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows, creating a moody atmosphere. The floor in front of the frame is cluttered with various objects, including a small white bowl, a piece of wood, and some debris.

Let no corrupting talk
come out of your mouth, but only such as good for building up, as it fits the occasion,
