Now when they drew near to Jerusalem,
to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives,

Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them,
“Go into the village in front of you,

And immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied,
on which no one has ever sat. ‘Untie it and bring it.’”

If anyone says to you, “Why are you doing this?”
Say, ‘The Lord has need of it, and will send it back here immediately.’”

“The Lord has need of it.”

And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it.

And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields.

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!

A man with a beard and long hair, wearing a brown robe, stands on a balcony overlooking a city. The city is built on a hillside with stone buildings and walls. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn.

And when He looked around at everything, as it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve...

“The Lord has need of it.”

“Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is He, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”

And when he had entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred ("seio" quaking), saying, who is this?
"...And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.
And the earth shook, and the rocks were split."
