NOSTALGIA

So I turned to consider Wisdom, Madness, & Folly

The Preacher
"Qohelet"

For what can a man do who comes after the king?
Only what has already been done.

Then I saw that there is more gain in wisdom than in folly, as there is more gain in light than darkness.

The wise person has his eyes in his head,
but The fool walks in darkness.

And yet I perceived that the same event happens to all of them.

Then I said in my heart,
“What happens to the fool will happen to me also.
Why then have I been so very wise?”

And I said in my heart that this also is vanity.

For of the wise as of the fool there is no enduring remembrance,

seeing that in the days to come all will have been forgotten.

How the wise dies just like the fool!

@Ecclesiastes 2:18

I hated all my toil in which I toil under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me, and who knows whether he will be wise or a fool?

Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun.
This also is Vanity.

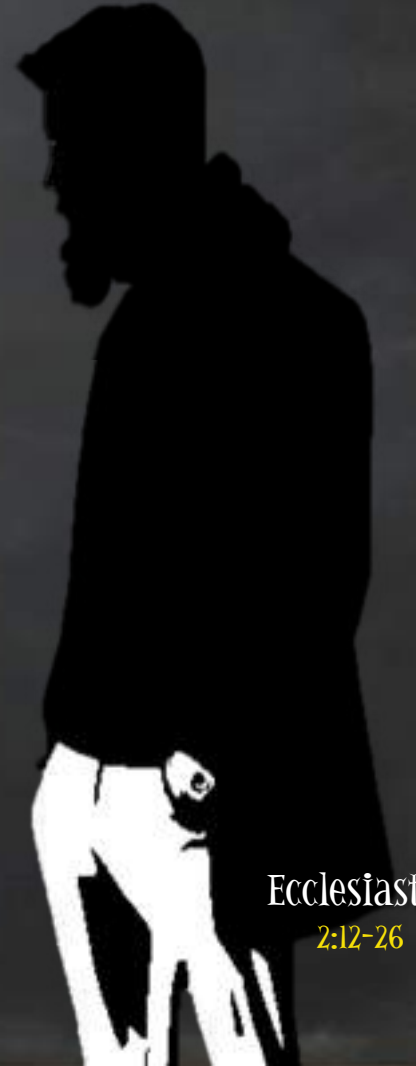

So I turned about

toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill someone who did not toil for it.
