GOSPEL OF
MARK 6:1-13

He went from there and came to His hometown, and His disciples followed Him.

NAZARETH

And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished.

Saying, Where did this man get these things?
What is the wisdom given to him?
How are such mighty works done by his hands?

Is not this a carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?
And are not his sisters here with us?

And they took OFFENSE to him.

And they took offense to him.

OFFENDED by Jesus?

And Jesus said to them,
"A prophet is not without honor..."

“Except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household.”

And he could do no mighty work there,
except that he laid his hands on a few sick
people and healed them.

UNDETERRED

And he went about among the villages teaching.

And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff -

No bread, no bag, no money in their belts –
but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics.

UN ENCUMBERED

Take nothing for their journey except a staff.

And he said to them, "Whenever you enter a house,
stay there until you depart from there."

"And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you,"

“When you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.”

And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.
