1 PETER 2:1-10

So put away all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander.

A photograph of a clothing store interior. A large, glowing, spherical pendant light hangs from the ceiling. Below it, a rack of clothes is visible, including a striped shirt and a blue shirt. The background shows more clothing racks and a doorway.

TAKE OFF

Malice

All harboring, hatred, and evil attitudes.

Deceit

All lying, exaggeration, and dishonest behavior.

Hypocrisy

All insincerity, manipulations, and false agendas.

Envy

All grudges, bitterness, and resentful emotions.

Slander

All gossip, backbiting, and corrupt talking.

A photograph of a road with a yellow center line leading into a misty, hazy landscape. The road is dark asphalt, and the yellow line is bright and prominent. The landscape is a vast, open field with rolling hills in the distance, all shrouded in a thick, white mist or fog. The sky is a pale, uniform white, blending into the mist. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk,

1 PETER 2:2

That by it you may grow up into salvation – if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

rejected by men but in the sight of

You yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house,

to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

For it stands in Scripture:

“Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

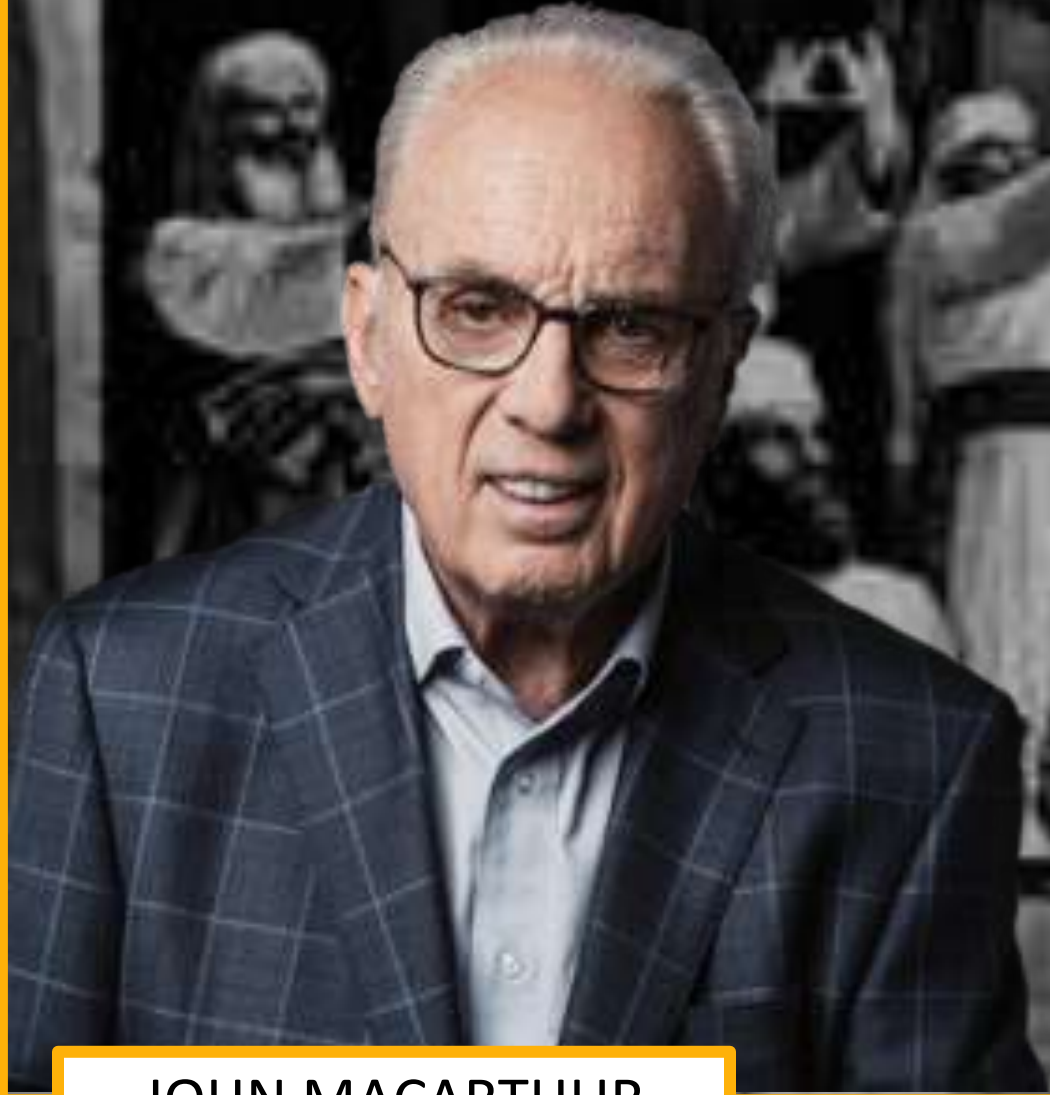

So the honor is for you who believe,
but for those who do not believe:

“The stone that the builders rejected, has become the cornerstone and a stone of stumbling, a rock of offense.”

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession,
