Title: The Christ We Share is the Christ We Need

Passage: II Corinthians 4:5-7

Speaker: Keith Roberts

Introduction: In 2 Corinthians 4, Paul reminds us that our ministry comes from God's mercy, our message is Jesus Christ, and our power comes from God alone. While the lost desperately need the light of the gospel, those of us who know Christ still need Him to change our attitudes, strengthen our faith, and help us obey.

I. Christ is the One People Need (Verse 5)

II. Christ is the One We Must Depend on (Verse 6)

III. Christ is the One Who Deserves the Glory (Verse 7)

Conclusion: Now we must consider our own response. If you have never trusted Christ, your greatest need is the forgiveness and new life He offers. Jesus died for your sins and rose again. Come to Him in faith, trusting what He has done for you. If you already belong to Christ, you still need to depend on Him. Perhaps there is someone you have dismissed, an attitude that needs correcting, or a fear that has kept you from sharing the gospel. Bring it before the Lord and ask Him to make you willing to obey. Think of one person you can pray for, show genuine care toward, and seek an opportunity to share the gospel with. We can
