MESSAGE INTRODUCTION

What does it mean to be a disciple? We are called to continue to learn about Jesus and teach others about Him.

This we in Matt's message, A House of Learning, we will focus on what being a disciple looks like and how this commandment is lived out in everyday life.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS (35-45 min)

1. Share how you followed God's call to step out and be more this past week. Were there any elements of the TOV circle which the Holy Spirit brought to mind?

2. What stood out to you most from this week's message?

3. Share where you are in your Christian education. What has been your most recent lesson?

4. The Holy Spirit is our teacher, but is there also a person in your life the Spirit has used to help teach and instruct you? How so?

5. We are all disciples and are called to disciple others. Who in your life right now could you disciple by sharing part of your story? What opportunities do you have?

6. Sometimes we don't completely understand a scripture at first, or don't remember later how it was explained. Even so, since all scripture is God-breathed, our souls are still being nourished (even when we don't

Icebreakers

Pick one of the icebreaker questions below and go around in a circle (starting with the leader) and have everyone answer. (If you have new members or guests have each person introduce themselves.)

1. What was your favorite subject in school?

2. What's the best lesson you have learned?

3. Do you have a piece of advice for those younger than you?

understand). Is there a particular passage you are struggling with now? If you're comfortable, share with the group. Perhaps someone else has struggled with the same issue maybe it can help them.

APPLICATION

Spend time in the Word this week. Take note of anything you have trouble with or took some time to work through. Share with the group next week what the Spirit teaches you.
