It's better to wish you were married
than to wish you weren't.

Matthew 19:1-12

Jesus' Teaching on Marriage and Divorce

I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another. To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is good for them to remain single as I am. But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Matthew 19:1-12

Jesus' Teaching on Marriage and Divorce

In essence, Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said, ‘You are permitted to divorce for any cause,’ but I say to you, ‘I have come to conquer the hardness of your heart. I have come to die for your sins. I have come to count you as righteous. I have come to show you the drama that marriage was meant to represent in my sacrificial, covenant-keeping love for my sinful bride.’”
